U. N. FORCES RENEW ADVANCE

Report Enemy Defense Tactics Mysteriously Elusive

Weather, Not Chinese Reds, Main Worry

U.S. Marines Battle Severe Cold Weather In Korean Advance

By JOHN RICH
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

WITH U. S. SEVENTH MARINE REGIMENT, near Changjin Reservoir, Northeast Korea, Nov. 16.—The weather—not Chinese communists—was the main worry for marines fanning out today around the south end of Changjin reservoir in northeast Korea.

Frostbite took a heavier toll among the leathernecks than the communists who have not been contacted in any force in this area for a full week.

The front which spread out Wednesday afternoon to the tops of hills at the vital reservoir's south end was silent but the marines dug into the frozen earth to prepare for possible counter-attacks. An estimated 3,000 Chinese communists reportedly left the area just four days ago.

Report of Some Enemy

Col. Homer Litzenberg, regimental commander, said:

"We have a report of some enemy on a hill two miles east of Hagaru and I am sending a patrol to investigate. We have had daily contact with the Reds on the left flank all the way up to the reservoir. They are just watching us to see what we are going to do."

From bomb-battered Hagaru, the ice-fringed Changin reservoir loomed deep-blue against snow-capped mountains farther north. This is the goal of the marines' offensive which has lasted 13 days to date.

Light powdery snow was visible

Political Discussions In Schools Aired Before Board

Political discussions in the public schools of New Castle came in for an airing Wednesday night at the meeting of the New Castle school board.

The matter came before the board when a delegation of the Highland Avenue Parent-Teachers Association appeared before the board. Speaking for the delegation were Attorney Marshall G. Matheny and Fred Boley.

Ask Clarification

Mr. Matheny explained that at a recent meeting of the Highland PTA, candidates for congress and the general assembly had been invited to be present. Someone complained to the school board of the plan and the candidates were not permitted to speak.

This because of a resolution of 1932 barring political and religious meeting from public school buildings.

Says New Tax Bill Will Not Pass This Year

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—House Republic leader Martin of Massachusetts predicted today that Congress will not enact new tax legislation this year.

The GOP chieftain said Democrats were just engaging in "political by-play" when they talk of enacting a four billion dollar excess profits tax on corporations.

Martin forecast probable House passage of a tax bill, but told newsmen that "it doesn't stand a Chinaman's chance of enactment in the Senate this year."

He said there is insufficient time

Eastern End Of Turnpike Opens On November 20

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The, $87,000,000 eastern extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike between Middlesex and King of Prussia will be opened to motorists November 20 at 7 a. m.

The 100-mile sweep of four-lane divided highway with nine interchanges will link up with the 160-mile-long Middlesex-Irwin section of the highway opened 10 years ago.

Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission Chairman T. J. Evans pointed out that the opening will give the motorists of America 260 miles of modern highway between the metropolitan Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas.

The fare for the 260 miles will be $2.50 for passenger cars. Fares depend upon distance traveled and type of vehicles.

Free of Stop Lights

The entire distance will be free of stop lights and grades exceeding three per cent. Eastbound trucks will not be permitted to go beyond

U.N. Council Will Consider Chinese Issues

Meeting Scheduled To Start Discussion During Afternoon

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

FLUSHING MEADOW, N. Y., Nov. 16.—Consultations are underway at the United Nations today to combine the conflicting issues over Communist China into a single package for debate in the security council or assembly.

The discussions proceeded as the Communist China invasion of Tibet and intervention in North Korea dominated all activities at U. N. and caused growing pressure for decisive action.

To Start at 3 P. M.

The security council is scheduled to start consideration at 3 p.m. (EST) of Gen MacArthur's report that Red Chinese troops have appeared in force across the Korean frontier. The vote will await arrival, however, of Peiping's nine-member team over the weekend.

The assembly is occupying itself this afternoon with U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie's 10-point program for peace over the next 20 years. But El Salvador's Hector Castro has a resolution calling on the assembly to condemn the Peiping invasion of Tibet.

Sharp opposition among U. N. delegates to dragging the Tibet invasion into the assembly may block Castro from succeeding in his objective of compelling the Peiping group to answer questions on the fate of the Himalayan state.

It is possible that the British may contact the Peiping group after arrival in New York in an effort to alter the unwillingness of the Chinese Communists to attend U. N. meetings in which they are the accused.

Groundwork Laid

A U. N. subcommittee in the meantime has laid the groundwork for defining the terms on which a government such as Communist China might gain admission to the world organization in place of a dispossessed regime.

Search Is Under Way For Two Adrift At Sea In Life Preservers

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Two Coast Guard planes, a cutter and a motorized lifeboat searched the Atlantic off Charleston today for the wife of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company board chairman and a male companion reported adrift in life preservers.

The socially prominent Mrs. Frederick H. Ecker, 48, wife of the 83-year-old millionaire, and a man identified as J. Heard were thrown into the water when their motorboat capsized yesterday off Sea Brook Beach near Charleston.

The motorboat was found this morning, but the Coast Guard said there was no sign of Mrs. Ecker or of Heard.

Chief engineman Walter Austin of the Coast Guard's Sullivan Island lifeboat station said calm seas and mild weather raised hopes that the pair may be rescued.

Senate Action On 'Defense Profits' Tax Uncertain

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—President Truman's request for a "defense profits" tax on corporations appears slated today for House approval, but Senate action this year is uncertain.

Indications are that the House Ways and Means Committee will report out a tax bill along the lines recommended by the president. Mr. Truman urged a four billion dollar annual levy on excess corporation profits.

Vote Along Party Lines

The committee voted along straight party lines to limit the hearings which opened yesterday to one week. Republicans immediately accused their Democratic colleagues of engaging in "the rankest form of steamroller tactics and gag rule."

By a 15 to 10 vote the committee adopted a resolution which also limited witnesses to a discussion of an excess profits tax and by this

Russian Charges Will Be Rejected

FRANKFURT, Nov. 16.—(INS)—U. S. officials were expected today to reject Russian charges that an American jet plane "buzzed" Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky's private transport near Frankfurt last Saturday.

The luxurious plane was being used to take ailing French communist leader Maurice Thorez from Paris to Moscow, ostensibly for medical treatment.

American officials explained that the Vishinsky plane, contrary to long-standing regulations, failed to check with the control tower at Frankfurt's Rhein-Main airport giving its altitude and destination.

As a result, a jet plane was sent aloft to ascertain the transport's altitude and direction and then return.

A U. S. air force official said:

"This was done and the fighter landed immediately afterward."

MONTPELLIER, France, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Ten of 11 men who parachuted from an American military plane before it crashed in flames last night were found safe today in southern France.

An engine of the plane, a B-29, caught fire while its crew was engaged in a long-distance night training flight. The men tried for 40 minutes to extinguish the flames before deciding to parachute.

Gains Are Made All Along Front In North Korea

By IRVING R. LEVINE
(I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Nov. 17—(Friday)—United Nations forces all along the North Korean front made gains of two to five miles Thursday in a renewed drive toward Manchuria over sleet-hardened terrain against a mysteriously elusive and watchful enemy.

A U. S. Tenth Corps spokesman reported that "gains were made in all sectors" of northeast Korea. On the right flank of UN forces the U. S. Army's Seventh Division chopped out a five-mile gain above the Ungi river.

Resistance in this sector was reported decreasing although it had previously stiffened early Thursday.

In the northwest UN forces gained nearly three miles after launching a new push at dawn Thursday above the Chongchon river bridgehead. Eighth Army headquarters reported that two regiments of the U. S. 24th Division moved ahead two miles against no opposition in the area just east of Pakchon.

American, British Commonwealth and South Korean troops met little or no opposition in the first cautious hours of their advance above the Chongchon.

Repulse Attack

To the northeast in the heart of North Korea's hydroelectric power system the Seventh Division's 31st Regiment bloodily repulsed an attack by 200 Communist troops at Handae near the north end of the Pujon (Fusen) reservior.

Five Persons Killed When Fire Destroys Staten Island Home

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—A father, mother and three of their four daughters were killed today in an early-morning flash fire that swept their Staten Island home.

The fourth daughter was saved by a wounded veteran of the Korean war who braved lashing tongues of flame to pull her to safety through a second floor window, to which he climbed by way of a porch post.

Trapped and killed were George Olsen, 51; his wife, Lae, also 51, and their daughters—Ruth, 21; Florence, 13, and Evelyn, 8.

Saved was 15-year-old Dorothy Olson, who owes her life to Edward Kane, 25, of West New Brighton, S. I. Kane, a sailor, only yesterday was flown home from the Pacific where he had been hospitalized after the minesweeper on which he served was sunk by a mine off Korea.

Milady wants a sable coat, she'll settle for a mink, or say a beaver, sheared and clipped would satisfy, I think. Why does she want a heavy coat, of fur both rare and high, to shut the winds of winter out as they go whizzing by. And I agree she needs a coat, and no man would refuse, but what about those sheer sheer hose, and bits size, toeless shoes? If she needs fur to keep her warm, then why not woolen sox and heavy shoes, say ankle high, as winter's wind she mocks. But that's a thing I do not know, not knowing woman's way, fur coats and wispy nylon hose, it's 60 today.

Optimists Hear Talk About J.B.

Annual Toy Drive Ready To Begin

Paul Failla of the research and development department of Johnson Bronze company spoke to the members and guests of the Optimist club at the club's regular dinner meeting at The Castleton hotel, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Failla told about the history of the company and the kind of work that it does. He showed samples of many different products turned out by Johnson Bronze and gave literature, telling about the company, to the members.

Special guests of the club at the meeting were Bob Pope, 235 East Lincoln avenue, and Bob Kerr, 205 Boyles avenue. The boys were honored by the club because of their honesty in returning a wallet, containing quite a sum of money to the proper authorities.

Both boys were presented with wrist watches by the club.

Annual Toy Drive

After the regular meeting the board of directors met. Plans for the annual Optimist club toy drive were furthered at the meeting. This drive includes the getting of old toys, repairing and painting them, and giving them to needy children.

The program has proved a great success in the past and work wil begin immediately on this year's drive.

Dr. Joseph Fletcher and Dale Clobus are co-chairmen of the drive. Work on the repairing and painting will be done at Joey's radio shop.

It was also announced at the director's meeting that the Optimist club would sponsor a basketball game between Westminster college and Youngstown college, to be played at George Washington junior high school floor on December 28.

to enact new tax legislation at the "lame-duck" session of Congress which will begin Nov. 27. The 81st Congress cannot remain in session beyond noon Jan. 3.

Martin's forecast was accompanied in the House Ways and Means committee by a sharp outbreak of party bickering during public hearings on President Truman's request for a four billion dollar "defense profits" tax on corporations.

The Democratic majority overrode Republican objections and blocked several witnesses from testifying on alternative tax proposals.

Three votes were taken each time the committee voted, 15 to 10, to sustain the ruling of Chairman Doughton (D) N. C., that testimony must be confined to excess profits legislation.

Career Day At Senior High

Twenty-two speakers addressed the New Castle High School sophomore class at the high school yesterday for sophomore career day, marking the sixth year the school has sponsored a career day conference.

Men and women from business, professions, industry and vocational work were invited to speak to the sophomores in the ranging fields of interest.

The sophomores listened to: Miss Margaret Foster, airline hostess; Robert White, speaking for the Armed Forces; Mr. Bowers of the Auto Mechanics; Louis DeGeorge for future beauticians; G. L. Gunnett, president of the building trades; Robert Gilbert for electricians; John Boyle to prospective engineers; Miss Patricia Kelly on home economics; Mrs. Edmund Cushman to homemakers; Bart Richards on journalism; Judge Walter Braham to prospective lawyers; Mr. Morrison about machinists; Edwin Lewis to musicians; Ruth Leuder, on nursing; Dr. Paris Shoaff to future physicians, Miss Lucille Emery and Miss Helen Keder on secretarial and office work; Captain Blythe for the state police; Mrs. Hattie Reitz on store salesmanship; Dr. Frank L. Burton to prospective teachers; and Fred Clark, president of Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association.

Miss Margaret Montgomery and Miss Genevieve Riddel had charge of the program arrangement.

the type of programs they are permitted to present at the meetings," said Mr. Matheny. "We don't want to schedule programs that can be upset by a telephone call."

Mr. Matheny asked Solicitor Robert L. Wallace if he thought the meeting was a political one.

"Yes I do," replied Mr. Wallace. "If we are going to enthuse our people about democracy and warn them against communism I believe the school buildings are the place to do it," said Mr. Matheny.

Considered By Board

The delegation retired after stating its position and the matter was taken up in regular order by the board.

Mrs. Samuel Rashid, county president of the PTA, stayed for the entire board meeting and when the matter was reopened said "the regulations of the PTA do not prohibit having candidates before the chapters for the purpose of presenting their views upon matters concerning schools. Congress will consider federal aid to schools and the General Assembly always has school legislation before it. We believe it right to have such candidates at our meetings."

Director Ralph A. Cooper said he thought it was proper for the PTA to hear candidates whose offices have to do with school legislation.

Director A. C. Hyde said he was for keeping all politics out of school buildings.

Solicitor Wallace suggested that candidates might be permitted to come before the PTA's if a member of the school board sat as moderator and saw to it that the candidates confined themselves to issues rather than personalities."

No action was taken but the board will study the question further.

Westminster Group Discusses U.N. At Oak Street P.T.A.

Dr. J. W. Creighton and three students from Westminster college were speakers at the meeting of the Oak Street P.T.A. on Tuesday evening in the school.

President, Mrs. Gerald Book, conducted the meeting, with the P.T.A. prayer read by Miss Gail Cooper, second grade teacher. Group singing was led by Mrs. Marguerite Fiscus, fourth grade teacher, and accompanied by Mrs. Grace Crowe, music supervisor.

Thanks were extended to Mr. and Mrs. G. Book and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hartman for aiding in the decoration of the P.T.A. float in the Armistice parade.

Mrs. R. Fabian, secretary, read three letters as follows: the resignation of Mrs. J. E. Leasure Jr. as first vice president and publicity chairman due to illness; Dr. Frank Burton, superintendent of schools, thanked the unit for making the P.S.E.A. convention more pleasant with the presence of a candy booth; and Miss Genevieve Riddle, secretary of P.S.E.A., thanked the unit for the flowers donated from the Oak street flower show for the P.S.E.A. dinner.

Nominations Made

Mrs. Paul Glover, treasurer, reported and the revised annual anticipated budget was presented and approved. Nominations for second vice president were taken and voted upon, with Mrs. James McKee being elected. Mrs. Arthur Shaffer, former second vice president, became first vice president.

Miss Edna Griffith, sixth grade teacher, reminded those present of the Junior Red Cross boxes being packed by the pupils. Donations are still being taken and items such as socks, marbles, small toys and wash cloths are still needed.

The mothers of the fourth grade pupils were thanked for donating sandwishes for the lunch. The room representation award was won by Mrs. Knapp, second grade teacher, with the children to receive the banner and treat for the month.

Speakers Introduced

Mrs. Joseph Campbell, program chairman, introduced the guest speakers, Dr. J. W. Creighton, professor of history at Westminster, and three college students, who had attended the U. N. sessions in October.

James King spoke on his material or physical impressions, and stated "The world-wide scope of the U. N. makes a lasting impression." Robert Boone gave his mental measurements of some of the important men of the U. N. which he received in his personal contact with each. Frank Jones spoke on facts of the U. N. history and public opinion. He stated how visiting the session has helped him better understand the inter-working of the U. N.

Refreshments were later served by Mrs. William McCullough, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. John Susko, co-chairman. Aides were Mrs. B. Stoops, Mrs. D. Mumford, Mrs. R. Loye, Mrs. G. Borst, Mrs. W. Trott, Mrs. J. Campbell, Mrs. J. McKee, Mrs. C. Weatherby, Mrs. F. Ross, Mrs. Q. Reiser, Mrs. H. Walter, Mrs. L. Brenneman, Mrs. M. Flack, and Mrs. J. Eagan.

proved a resolution which recommends that challenges to a government to represent a member state in U. N. 'should be considered in the light of the purposes and principles of the charter and the circumstances of each case."

The resolutions was adopted by eight votes in favor, four against and two abstentions. China and the United States voted for the measure, while France and India voted against. Turkey and Britain abstained. It now goes to the full committee for approval before ratification by the general assembly.

Bert Stevenson Dies In Florida

Word was received from Lakeland, Fla., Wednesday evening, telling of the death of Bert E. Stevenson, former well-known Spanish War Veteran, who died in the Bay Pines hospital, at St. Petersburg, Fla., after and illness of over three years.

Mr. Stevenson's nephew, Frank H. Robinson, of 906 North Mercer street, left for Florida this morning, and will accompany Mrs. Stevenson and the body back to New Castle, where burial is to take place. Funeral arrangements will be announced on their return.

Mr. Stevenson spent considerable time in Porto Rico where he managed a large plantation in which New Castle residents were interested, before returning here about 10 years ago. Later, he went to Florida, where he had since resided at Lakeland.

Attorneys Discuss Pension Today

Attorneys for the City Employes Retirement system will appear before the municipal workers who belong to the system this afternoon where the invalidated city pension ordinance will be discussed.

Some employes hope that clauses to which the court objected, and which caused an adverse decision, can be eliminated, yet amendments made, which will be approved by the court.

If it is decided by the employes not to proceed further toward pensions, as many as possible of the 150 or more members will go under the provisions of Social Security, it is reported.

MISS MARY ABERICO GUEST AT SHOWER

Several lovely gifts of a personal nature were presented to Miss Mary Aberico as she was recently entertained at a pre-nuptial shower. Mrs. Marilou Knobloch was hostess for the festive occasion at the home of her mother, Mrs. Grace McCracken, 412 Haus avenue.

A variety of games marked the evening's program, with prizes awarded to Miss Katherine Carna, Miss Helen Keder, Miss Shirley Livermore, Mrs. Beatrice Peluso, and Mrs. Phyllis Ransome.

The hostess was assisted by Miss Shirley Livermore and Miss Ruth Shoaff in serving a dainty lunch. A pink and green color scheme was carried out in the attractive decorations, with miniature hats marking each place.

Miss Aberico, the daughter of Mrs. Clara Russ, 316 Vine street, will be united in marriage with John Beynon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beynon, 412½ North Mercer street.

The couple will repeat their wedding vows on Saturday, November 25, at 10:30 a.m., in the rectory of St. Vitus church.

Jolly Relatives Luncheon

A Christmas party, to be held December 13, was planned when members of the Jolly Relatives club met for 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bruce Heasley, Brooklyn avenue.

The ladies spent the afternoon in fancywork, chat and television.

Mrs. Agnes McClelland was presented with a gift from the group in honor of her birthday.

BAIRD SOCIETY HAS TIMELY PROGRAM

Baird Missionary society assembled in Highland United Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. R. D. Rhodes led devotions. Mrs. John Haven conducted the prayer cycle.

Preceding the meeting, a prayer group met with Mrs. A. R. Batten serving as leader.

"Panorama by Television," was Mrs. John Street's subject. In speaking of the Islam religion, Mrs. Street discussed our Moslem Near East neighbor and our responsibility to the Near East. A question and answer period followed.

Announcement was made of the thankoffering service next Sunday at the church and of the City Rescue Mission's appeal for Thanksgiving baskets. The group voted to give their Christmas offering to the United Presbyterian Children's home at Mars. Mrs. Robert L. Weber presided at the business session.

A tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Willis Alben, Miss Martha Dinsmore, and Mrs. James P. Merrilees, hostesses. The society will gather at the church Wednesday afternoon, December 20, at 1 o'clock.

SIMON CORPS HAS MEETING WEDNESDAY

Louis E. Simon Relief Corps No. 11, auxiliary members to the G.A.R., met Wednesday evening in Malta hall for their regular meeting with Mrs. Rilla Rishel presiding.

A social time was held and lunch was served by a committee composed of Mrs. Florence Hoover and Mrs. Millie Wallace. Prizes were won by Mrs. Edna Smith, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Mrs. Rebecca Strong and Mrs. Edith Hahn.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, December 6, in Malta hall, when an election of officers will be featured.

McCASLIN-FOMBELLE BEAUTIFUL RITE

A gown of shimmering skinner satin was worn by Miss Elsie McCaslin as she exchanged wedding vows with Walton Wesley Fombelle on Tuesday, November 14.

Dr. W. D. Millen performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the First United Presbyterian church of Ellwood City at 6:30 o'clock. Lighted tapers graced the altar, with palms, ferns and white mums and pompons as additional decorative features.

Miss McCaslin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd H. McCaslin, 624 Park avenue, Ellwood City, and Mr. Fombelle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Fombelle, R. D. 9, Old Pittsburgh road.

A prelude of organ music was offered by Mrs. Emmett Liebendorfer, with soloist, Eugene Fox, singing. "Through the Years," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" as the young couple knelt at the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the attractive bride wore a gown fashioned with an engaging sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves. A dainty flounce added to the grace of the full skirt and terminated in a cathedral train. Her lace-edged veil of French illusion was caught up in a helmet. She carried an arm cluster of white roses and streamers of pompons.

Miss Ellen McCaslin, of Pittsburgh, Pa., attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore with charm a turquoise velvet gown with matching half helmet. Her arm cluster consisted of yellow pompons and talisman roses.

Lloyd Fombelle, of New Castle, served his brother as best man. Ushers included Robert Lutz and Arthur Lockwood, both from New Castle.

A wedding reception for 125 guests was held in the church social room at 7 o'clock. Aides at the reception were the Misses Annabelle Ort, Grace Rodgers, Lois MacDonald, and Donna Mae McCaslin. Each wore a corsage of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Fombelle later departed for a honeymoon through the southern states, and will reside in their newly furnished apartment on the Old Pittsburgh road upon their return.

A graduate of the Lincoln high school of Ellwood City, the bride is an office secretary at the J. C. Penney company of Ellwood City. The groom, a graduate of the Shenango high school and a business administration senior at Geneva college, Beaver Falls, is affiliated with the Fombelle Coal and Builders' Supply company, New Castle, Pa.

W.S.C.S. MEMBERS MEET AT CHURCH

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church held its monthly meeting at the church Wednesday evening.

The theme of the meeting, "Health in the Rural Districts," was used throughout the devotions and program, which were led by Mrs. A. J. Robbins, with Miss Irene Matthews, Mrs. J. W. Black, and Mrs. J. W. Post assisting.

At the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Leonard Cramer, the supply work sheet was read and it was decided to send contributions to the Ruth M. Smith Home at Sheffield, Pa., the Boylan-Haven school at Jacksonville, Fla., and the foreign missions in Korea and Africa.

A social period folowed at which time the hostesses, members of Circle 3, served tea.

The next meeting of the society will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 20, at the church.

LADIES OF KIWANIS HEAR MISS MULLANE

Miss Virginia Mullane, representative of the United Airlines, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Ladies of Kiwanis on Wednesday. Members gathered in the Mandarin room of The Castleton hotel for a 1 o'clock luncheon.

Colorful and attractive centerpieces of chrysanthemums, fruit and autumn leaves had been arranged by the hostesses, Mrs Thomas Paden and Mrs. Kenneth McLure.

Various phases of air travel were discussed in an interesting manner by Miss Mullane as she told the ladies of her work. The group was further entertained with a film of a trip to Hawaii.

A Christmas luncheon has been planned for the next meeting on Wednesday, December 20, at The Castleton hotel. "Guest day" will feature the event, and gifts will be exchanged during the afternoon.

Bethany Missionary Meeting

Women's Missionary Society of the Bethany Lutheran church sponsored a luncheon for the annual Thankoffering on Tuesday at 1 o'clock p.m. Twenty-nine being present.

The lunch hour was followed by a program of praise and worship. Mrs. K. E. Reitz in charge, with Mrs. Chas. Gustafson at the piano. Mrs. Everet Taylor read the scripture lesson.

Miss Mary Riffer, guest speaker from St. John's Lutheran, gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Now Thank Thee All Our God, with Hearts and Hands and Voices."

Mrs. George Campbell presented the Thiel Women's Club, stressing the benefits of the organization.

Mrs. A. E. Reynolds requested that all women of the church and all organizations work and pray for the success of the World Day of Prayer, February 9. Also the need for clothing in Europe was emphasized.

AF COVER FOR THE ARMY

In elevating ground-support aviation to the status of a major command, the Air Force has not acted a bit too soon. From the combat Army infantry in Korea have come too many cries of "Why in the blankety-blank-blank can't the Air Force give us doggies the kind of support the Marine fliers give their guys on the ground?"

The news is that next month the present Continental Air Command will be split into three outfits of the same echelon level: the Air Defense Command with headquarters at Mitchel Field, N. Y., the Continental Air Command for civilian training (also at Mitchel), and the Tactical Air Command at Langley Field, Va.

It is the last-named outfit which has new importance in the decision to bring closer teamwork between air and ground forces. The TAC will report directly to General Vandenberg, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs.

No so long before outbreak of the fighting in Korea the Air Force made an effort to interest the Army in setting up a joint training program. Air Force fliers would be assigned duty with the ground forces. On several levels of command—down to battalions—the Army would explain in detail exactly what kind of support it wanted, and the Air Force would try to fill the bill.

Doubtless fighter and low-level bomber pilots often can make suggestions to infantry commanders for better, more efficient, work. Should the infantry or the aircraft destroy a particular bridge? That's the sort of thing the two outfits would want to decide almost automatically. But nothing complex can be done that way without a meeting of minds and plenty of actual training.

It is to be hoped that from now on the combat infantry will have no cause to envy the way the air and ground Marines do it.

NEW WEAPON AGAINS MALARIA

Development of what is reported to be a "practically 100 per cent cure" for recurring malaria should be, if further testing bears out its promise, good news for malaria victims everywhere.

Experiments on 33 inmates of Stateville Penitentiary in Georgia who volunteered to act as guinea pigs have apparently brought 32 complete recoveries. That, of course, is not necessarily conclusive proof of the value of the new "cure," a drug called primaquine, but it certainly justifies optimism.

If, as claimed by John S. Edgcomb, American Cancer Society Fellow in Pathology in the University of Chicago Medical Society, and conductor of the experiment, primaquine turns out to be four times as effective as any other antimalarial drug ever tested, it would bring relief to vast groups of the world's population and help solve some of the problems that lead to hunger, death and war. Every instance of this sort is further evidence of the good that can come from pressing medical research of all kinds.

A HARRISON IN CONGRESS

Senator Taft was not the only descendant of a president of the United States elected to Congress in the recent election. William Henry Harrison, grandson of President Benjamin Harrison—who was a grandson of President William Henry Harrison, "Old Tippecanoe"—was elected to the House of Representatives as Wyoming's lone member. He was a member of the Wyoming legislature for a number of terms, and before moving to Wyoming served in the Indiana Legislature.

The Adamses are the only other American family which has produced two presidents. John Quincy Adams is generally credited with having been an able president. His father, John Adams, ranks as superior to most, in spite of his handicap of being the contemporary of Washington and Jefferson, who overshadowed almost all others of their day.

William Henry Harrison lived for only a month after his inauguration. His grandson, Benjamin Harrison, has been described as the ablest lawyer who ever became president.

PROTECT YOUR COUNTRY

The security of the United States rests in the hands of the individual citizen.

He is the one who has to produce, pay the taxes, and when all else fails, man the guns on the firing line.

On July 24, this year, the president of the United States requested all law enforcement agencies, patriotic organizations and individuals to report all information relating to espionage, sabotage and subversive activies to the FBI.

1. Be alert. A watchful citizen can save many American lives.

2. Report only facts. Avoid reporting malicious gossip or idle rumors.

3. The nearest FBI office is listed on page one of your telephone directory.

Yes, the safety of the United States is in the hands of each man and woman.

Men, observed a scientist, are not as tall as they used to be. There's a fellow who, obviously, hasn't attended basketball games lately.

• Chinese Reds, who were never to take part because they were agrarian reformers, are now fighting in a war which—according to the smart boys in Washington—could never happen.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

Long-Anticipated Step In Germany

The allied high commission for Germany has taken a long-anticipated step which clearly indicates dwindling hope of any early agreement with Soviet Russia on manifold German problems.

It is an order permitting the governments of 11 west German states to integrate their police forces in event of emergency—the first definite measure so far taken to centralize and solidify armed German manpower.

The new regulation also will permit the local police to carry light equipment and although ostensibly each state force will continue to be an individual and autonomous unit, the order restores a measure of German police cohesion.

Step Is Important

First, the Soviets doubtless will use it as propaganda in their efforts to prove that the western allies are turning Germany into what they call "an armed camp for aggression".

Second, it will relieve some of the strain on U. S. occupational forces. Individual American, British and French soldiers do not take too kindly to an arrangement whereby occupational troops are frequently compelled to function as policemen as well as purely military units.

Third, it will vastly strengthen forces on guard against the spread of communism in western Germany.

Will Be Psychological

This strengthening will be psychological as well as physical.

Opinion is divided even in Germany on the subject of actual rearmament. The Social Democrats under the leadership of Dr. Kurt Schumacher vigorously oppose anything in the nature of rearmament and remilitarization.

In a recent speech he said that German workers and the trade unions are solidly against a return to arms and challenged the government of Chancellor Dr. Konrad Adenauer to risk a general election on the issue.

But in the face of this division there is absolute unity of thought on the matter of creating and equipping a west German police force worthy of the name.

Many Former Popular Ones

The old force numbered in its ranks many former army officers and was immensely popular and respected by all but incorrigibly criminal elements. There is little doubt, of course, that the splendid discipline, fine appearance and high intelligence of its members stemmed from the fact that the force was the best possible nucleus for a new German army during the years of presumed demilitarization.

There is one curious factor linked with the western allies' decision to put the west German police back on an integrated footing.

One of their chief complaints against the Russians in Germany over and above incessant Red propaganda and terrorism is the fact that the Soviets have built up their so-called "people's police" to 200,000 men or more.

They have been given armored cars and artillery and even purely military tanks have shown up in east German police parades which have been marked by reversion to the old military goosestep.

In contrast, the west German police of 30,000 men must be constituted purely as a force for the protection of orderly civilian life which automatically rules out heavy weapons and the like.

However, there is no doubt that the west Germans will welcome the new departure. They respect authority to the ultimate degree—provided that authority is a German one—and the revitalized police will be a lift to German pride.

It also is an object lesson as to how democratic principles can be applied to a state which for centuries knew totalitarianism in one form or another and now is subjected to thinly-disguised tyranny in the east.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

I forgot what prize the White House offered for a name for the second World War but "police action" will never win a refrigerator as the Korean campaign tag.

When you get into the sixth month of a shooting contest and no end in sight this is "police action" like Guadalcanal was a constables' outing.

Contrasting views are "we are fighting the cause of freedom and democracy" and "we were suckered into a gang fight too far from our pile of rocks and the gang is bigger than we are."

In either case the fight goes on.

Many persons prefer the idealistic view but they are still handing new soldiers non-idealistic guns loaded with realistic ammunition.

"United Nations police action" sounded splendid on paper . . . but that's where the United Nations support is too.

Less than 10 per cent of the nations which voted action have taken any but we'd be happy for them to join at their convenience . . . say next year or the following year.

State Police Say:

The State Police recommend that at the conclusion of all public meetings, service club groups, PTA meetings, high school assemblies, grange meetings, athletic contents, etc., the person in charge terminate such meeting with a word on safe driving. We believe that by constantly reminding our drivers that safety is a full time responsibility we can materially lower the accident frequency rate.

GARDEN CLOSING

The birds have flown south. Let the winter begin!
Now down in the basement the lawn mower goes.
To rest with the spade and the rake and the hose.

The cutworms and beetles no longer invade.
The aphids resist the stuff that I sprayed.
But they went underground at the first sign of frost,
For they knew if they lingered above they were lost.

All's well with the garden! But what about me?
And what shall I do with my time after tea?
Just sit by the fire in my arm chair and yawn
And dream of the days when I watered the lawn.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A man who had been a book salesman for twenty years decided there was more money in selling vacuum cleaners, and secured the local agency for a well-known brand. His very first prospect was a skeptical housewife who asked, "Are you sure that contraption will gather up every snigle bit of dirt?" "Lady," said the salesman earnestly, "I ran this cleaner lightly ove a copy of "Lady Chatterley's Lover" yesterday, and when I was finished, it was Louisa Alcott's "Little Women!"

John O'Connell reports that Author Eric Hodgins finds writing a monumental chore. When he finished "Blanding's Way," for instance, his almost-new typewriter was in need of extensive repairs. The men who had sold him the machine said, "We get back twenty-year-old typewriters that aren't half as beat up as this." Hodgins reported later, "I had to ask him to repeat that statement. The way I feel, I was sure he had said eighty-year-old authors."

From Me To You

By MESEEALL

This has been a strenuous fall season . . . as far as campaigns are concerned. Right now, we have a little old money-raising idea that must be finished . . . and we can see no reason why it should be hanging on . . . that is, there is no reason IF everyone had done his part . . . About seven thousand dollars is needed to make the Community Chest Campaign successful . . . If everyone had done his part during the weeks of the campaign the quota would have been met and over-subscribed . . . as some communities have reported. But because a few people are narrow minded, self-contained which makes them selfish individuals . . . the 12 agencies of the Community Chest will not get their required cash for operation in 1951.

IF people in the community had given 10 cents per week . . . a total of five dollars and twenty cents . . . New Castle would have led the entire area in Community Chest participation . . . but, NO, some of the Joes who are today living better than they ever did in their lives . . . have said in action if not in words . . . The hell with the needy . . . let them get to work and carry their own problems.

These same Joes who fail to support their community . . . are no doubt the same Joes who take all that these United States has to offer and think that it is all here just to be taken. Not ever giving it a thought that much blood, tears and sweat was spent by thousands so that they could today be living a better life than most of the rest of the world.

* * *

Yes, it's really too bad when people turn their heads the other way when asked to support their communities' needs . . . while the Lions' Club members were rather successful Tuesday . . . they found people who refused to contribute. Don't you, who support your community, you who have a heart, often wonder how the selfish people sleep at night. As we read down over the list of contributors and their amounts, we often have to stop and gather up the tears . . . Some, we wonder how they do it . . . others, why they do it . . . and of course the names of some don't even appear.

ON THE BRINK!

Land Of Opportunity

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

Truly, America is the land of opportunity.

Let no one tell you different.

Want proof? Okay, here it is.

I was asked and actually allowed to appear on television the other night. Name me another country that would allow me to go on television. You can't, because there isn't any.

If I can get on television—the new and magnificent medium—it means that there isn't a citizen among America's 158 millions who can't get on it too, with its chance of fame, fortune, and artificial suntan.

I don't want to brag, because I do it so much it bores me, but I have a feeling that for many years to come I will be remembered as the man who paved the way, opened the doors, to television for the homely, the awkward, and the highly untalented.

Starts Big Rush

I say this because I know that since I appeared farmers have laid down their plows, streetsweepers have tossed away their brooms, bank vice-presidents have shoved aside their bronze name plaques, and congressmen abandoned their constituents, all to rush to CBS to demand a television spot.

It is a tribute to the character of the people of this country that no really serious trouble resulted from my television appearance. Oh, a few mass meetings of indignant citizens were held, and here and there folks gathered to burn their television sets in a great bonfire, but there was no nationwide outcry, and no hooded posse has yet threatened Mr. Paley of CBS, or Sherman Billingsley, owner of the Stork Club, on whose program I appeared.

It is true that Mr. Billingsley is being followed by a group of alienists. They want to find out why a man of his apparently sane and sensible behavior would, of his own free will and accord, ask me to appear on the Stork Club show.

They want to know why, with the whole New York phone directory to choose from, he selected a man who has all the personal charm of an exhausted flounder, and the appearance of a halloween mask.

One of the alienists (my family physician for years) told me that Billingsley, following the show on which I flashed like a lump of coal thrown down an abandoned well, was a broken man.

"Must Be Exclusive"

"My mistake will cost me upwards of half a million dollars before the year is out," he said. "People have always felt that the Cub Room of the Stork was exclusive. I have had thousands of phone calls and tens of thousands of letters and wires telling me that since McLemore's appearance they know it must be just about as exclusive as the subscription list of the "Saturday Evening Post."

"I'm sorry for Billingsley, but I must say that I wouldn't have done so badly if I had had any idea of what was going on. Television is as mysterious as astronomy or a red-headed woman.

The producer told me that when a red light blinked in my face I was in the picture. He didn't tell me what to do when I tripped over the miles of wire which were on the floor. Nor did he tell me that he was always going to put my right profile in the camera. My right profile is exactly like the profile of an ironing board.

The next time I go on—don't laugh, I'll whip this medium or be bought out by Dumont—I'll know enough to either turn my back to the camera, or wear an evening gown cut so low nobody'll care what my face looks like or what I say.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

WHEN BABY SEEMS TO BE JITTERY

The tininess and helplessness of the brand new infant bring out the tenderest feelings and gentlest expressions from the mother. If it is her first baby she may even have some fears lest she might handle him too roughly, especially when she bathes this baby for the first few times.

She observes that when she raises or lowers this infant suddenly he may throw out his arms and show a catchiness of breath, even when only a few days old. This infant may respond in like manner if some other person should stub a toe aaginst the bassinet while the baby is in it, or should slam the door. Soon the whole household may go about whispering or on tiptoe. Yet all such precaution against usual noise is unnecessary. The infant easily adapts himself to them and is disturbed only by unusual noise.

Young Children

This fact is apparent when we observe that infants and young children in a house by a quiet street seem to sleep no better than those in a home by a noisy street. Outside noises, you see, just go on. No person caring for the infant attempts to control them. The mother and other adults in the home also adapt themselves to the outside noises, which they know they can't control.

In the home, however, various members of the family may make some noises—speaking shrilly or loudly, slamming doors, turning on the radio—that annoy other persons (including the mother) there. Such noises annoy because they suggest to the person annoyed a lack of thoughtfulness, or even a desire to annoy. The mother on being thus vexed inclines herself to speak in sharper, louder tones and to betray vexation in her movements. Consequently, the infant only a few weeks or a few months old connects vaguely but gradually the touch and pressure

It Took Them A Long Time

The "new" Henry A. Wallace, the night-blooming patriot who is suddenly suspicious of Soviet Russia's intentions and who demands that the United States increase its armed strength as fast as possible, is hardly a figure to inspire confidence.

Gaining momentum in his tardy rush for the band-wagon, the former Vice President who ran for President as head of the radical Progressive Party, now declares that he no longer believes that peace can be obtained by meeting Russia "halfway," and that he has changed his mind about the desirability by admitting Red China to the United Nations.

He spurns appeasement as he would the plague. Yet he had been the very apostle of appeasement. It wasn't many months ago that he traveled to Europe to preach the doctrine of Soviet appeasement.

It was Wallace who assailed the Atlantic Pact as an act of aggression against the Soviet Union, who asserted that the U. S. must stop the manufacture of the atomic bomb, grant Russia a multi-billion loan "with no strings attached" and seek to reach an "understanding" with Moscow.

That he finally awakened to his errors is no tribute to his intelligence. It has taken him a long time. In the meantime, while deluding himself about Communist Russia, he was doing his country immense harm by using the prestige of his former high offices to play the Communist game. To his former associates he is no wa renegade. To the rest of us he is someone whose ufterances are of no importance whatever. — Philadelphia Inquirer.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Future

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—From both the military and the political perspective a great deal may depend in the next year and a half on one man's future. That man is General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Representatives of the 12 North Atlantic Pact nations meeting in London now will have something to say about the future. The 12 deputies have as their No. 1 problem the effort to reconcile the position of France on German military units in a North Atlantic defense force with the position of the United States and the other powers.

The French have shown no intention of yielding and the effort at reconciliation may fail. Failure would mean that no supreme commander could be appointed for a unified force. Instead the Atlantic powers would accept an alternative already worked out.

A chief of staff would be appointed whose powers would be considerably less than those of supreme commander. Obviously Eisenhower would not be asked to take the lesser position.

Will Know In December

The final result is not likely to be known before December 10. Around December 1 the chairman of America's joint chiefs of staff, General Omar N. Bradley, is going to London for a top-level North Atlantic conference. That conference will be charged with coordinating military and diplomatic decisions and coming up with a specific program.

The Western European chief of staff would probably also—on the urging of the other North Atlantic nations—be an American. Most frequently mentioned is Lt. Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, deputy chief of staff of the U.S. Army.

But if it becomes possible to name a supreme commander for a western force including German units, the assignment will go to Eisenhower. He has told his former associates in the Pentagon that he will accept the post if and when he is asked to. As he has several times said publicly, he will respond to any call of duty in a time of national emergency whether it means serving in uniform or out.

Remove From Political Picture?

There has already been discussion as to whether assignment in Europe as supreme commander would altogether remove Eisenhower from the political picture at home. Governor Thomas E. Dewey has designated Eisenhower as his candidate for the Republican nomination for 1952.

The question of General Ike's potential future in politics has not been overlooked by the Pentagon planners. It is a reality that cannot be ignored.

Most military men are decidedly doubtful about a general—any general—in the White House. Their feeling is that this might make the task of re-armament and defense more difficult. It would be necessary for the general, as President, to lean over backward in order to convince Congress and the public that he was not unduly favoring the military.

Would Always Be Suspicion

There would always be the suspicion that a general in the White House would be inclined to militarize civilian functions of government. In a minor and comparatively unimportant way it has been possible to see this reaction in the civilian office of secretary of defense which is now occupied by General George C. Marshall.

But their own feelings to one side, top military men recognize the position Eisenhower occupies in the country. It is conceivable that in 1952 millions of his fellow citizens would regard him as the only American who cold unify the country and get essential action to maintain America's role of responsibility in the world. Eisenhower would stand above the political battle that seems certain to be waged between Senator Robert A. Taft on the one hand and President Truman on the other.

Not Necessarily Preclude Candidacy

As viewed from the Pentagon, Eisenhower's assignment in Europe would not necessarily preclude the possibility of his becoming a presidential candidate. It is now contemplated that he would be asked to take the position of supreme commander for one year only—the vital first year of organization.

The posts of supreme commander in this first year would be at least as much diplomatic as military. One of Eisenhower's great contributions in World War II was to iron out clashing viewpoints and get teamwork out of an international staff and army.

Appointed for one year, Eisenhower would return to the United States in February or March of 1952. As his friends see it, he would return with greater stature, having carried out a difficult task put on him by his commander-in-chief.

All this, of course, is on the hopeful assumption that a general world conflict will have been avoided. In the event of World War III, there will be no question of Eisenhower's future. He becomes again a fighting man and one of the strategists on whom this nation's very survival will depend.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

"BACKYARD BOMB SHELTER PLANS—$1.00. Mone back if requested within seven days."

"Civ. Def.—Lousy."

That is a notation in my "idea sheet." It means that I intend to write a column about the very poor state of our Civilian Defense organization.

I apologize for the word "lousy." It is very unrefined—but that's the way I wrote it.

Now about that classified ad.

Are you going to send for the "backyard bomb shelter plan?"

I am not.

The reason: I don't believe in bomb shelters.

They may be very practical.

But I don't believe in the mental and spiritual attitude that makes a person build bomb shelters against a very remote possibility.

There may be atomic attacks on our country.

They may hit your town or mine.

They may hit your house or mine.

There may also be an earthquake.

There may be a flood.

There may be a hurricane.

There may be infantile paralysis, cholera, the black plague.

Why not be sensible about those dangers rather than fearful?

Are we going to go through life isolated against all hazards, scared to death long before we die?

It would be silly to expose ourselves to danger, but it is cowardly to live in constant fear of it.

One of God's great gifts to mankind is COURAGE.

If it is His will that disaster befall us, nothing can prevent it.

When I made that note "Civ. Def.—Lousy," I did not mean just to criticize the very poorly organized and still more poorly executed system of Civil Defense.

I intended to show that the public is not particularly concerned about Civil Defense.

In my own community—and probably in most others—we have a Civil Defense organization. A dozen committees have been appointed. Meetings have been held—with and without refreshments. Speeches have been made. Publicity has been given.

But that is all. Not one single actual step has been taken to be prepared for any emergency that may arise.

Is that bad? Not in my opinion. To me it only proves that here in America we prefer to look UP rather than DOWN, to FACE a potential enemy rather than HIDE ourselves from him.

Presbyterian C.E. Meeting

Have Fine Program, Missionary To Speak

In the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, members of the Christian Endeavor society gathered on November 12, with a large group present.

A splendid program was presented by Don Weisbaker. A song period was held, directed by Clair Galbraith, assisted by Miss Dorothy Huff at the piano. Mr. Galbraith also gave a solo selection.

Theme of the meeting was "Praise", and Don Weisbaker presented a Bible story which described and stressed what Christ had done for us.

A business session followed, with William Bollinger, adult sponsor in charge. A number of plans were made for the future. The sports committee reported that the basketball team is making good progress, and will practice again Friday evening at Mahoning school. The table tennis team has been organized, and players selected according to ability. The team desires a match game with any church team in the city. Plans are being made for a Christmas party, which will include a turkey dinner for the entire group.

Future meeting plans include an interesting talk by a missionary now on furlough from Colombia, South America, also by other important spiritual leaders.

Other young people desiring to unite with the society are requested to attend next Sunday evening meeting at the church, at seven o'clock.

Mabel Wilson Lodge Officers Elected

There was a gathering of members of Mabel Wilson Lodge No. 567 on Tuesday evening, in their lodge room, South Liberty street, with president Mrs. T. J. LaRock in charge.

There was an initiation of a new candidate by the president and her aides.

The following officers were elected for 1951 as follows: president, Mrs. T. J. LaRock; vice president, Mrs. Knox Davenport; secretary, Mrs. Lila Thayer; treasurer, Mrs. Earl Davis; chaplain, Mrs. W. G. Sapper; conductress, Mrs. William M. King; warden, Mrs. O. F. Shaffer; inner guard, Mrs. John M. Farris; outer guard, Mrs. James Clare; pianist, Mrs. Philip Hogan.

An oyster supper was served, the committee being Mrs. LaRock, Mrs. O. F. Shaffer, and Mrs. Joseph Doone. The door prize was won by Mrs. Forbie Pitzer.

Next Meeting of the group will be tuesday, Nov. 28, when plans will be made for a Christmas party. Social chairman for November will be Mrs. LaRock.

Past Presidents Have Dinner Event

At the home of Mrs. T. J. LaRock of West Madison avenue, the past presidents of the Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen assembled on Wednesday afternoon for a Thanksgiving party.

A sumptuous chicken dinner and all the trimmings was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. William G. Sapper and Mrs. William M. King. Mrs. John Doone gave the invocation.

Various games were the afternoon diversion, with the prize falling to Mrs. William Campbell.

Mrs. King was in charge of the business session. Plans were made for a Christmas party at next meeting in December, at the home of Mrs. Clare McConnell, of Schenley avenue, date to be later announced. There will also be election of officers.

Christmas Lighting Set For December 15

Members of the Seventh Ward Civic Club gathered for their regular meeting on Tuesday, in the New Liberty hotel, with Alfred Hyde presiding.

At the business session, December 15 was the date set for turning on the Christmas holiday lighting. Principal Fred McLure was chosen to be in charge of the program for the evening Ralph Andrews will supervise the arranging for and placing of a Christmas tree in the ward.

The matter was discussed of adding some strings of lights across Liberty street, south of the railroad underpass.

Seventh Ward Notes

This evening, the Junior Women's Guild of Mahoning Methodist church will have a Thanksgiving silver tea in the dining room of the church, at eight o'clock. Miss Susan S. Scurr, dietician of Ferguson hall, Westminster college, will speak, and show slides of her recent trip to Europe. Miss Margaret Sutton will be guest soloist, accompanied by Miss Jessie Mockel of this city, director of Chautauqua Opera Chorus.

In report of Council 74 nominations, name of Mrs. Mary Quarto as candidate for corresponding secretary in English, was omitted.

Contest for a name for the Mahoning school newspaper has come to a close, with the winning name "Weekly Climax," being submitted by Thomas Naple. The 1-108 class is very proud, and wants the rest of the classes in the school to know that they haven't had a tardy mark all year, and hope to keep that record through the nine years at Mahoning school. The first grade boys and girls go to Miss McQueen's room to play games each day.

Mrs. William Weisbaker of Gardner, is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter of West Clayton street.

REV. MILLER NAMED

YORK, Pa., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Rev. Guy E. Miller of West York today began a new term as president of the West Pennsylvania conference, Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America.

The clergyman was re-elected at the body's 13th annual meeting yesterday in Emigsville Also installed were Rev. Ralph C. Sloop of New Cumberland, vice president; Rev. Lester J. Karshner of Abbottstown, secretary, and Rev Robert M. Wise of Mt. Holly Springs, treasurer.

Rev. Mark Mitchell Grace Church Speaker

Rev. Mark L. Mitchell, evangelist of Canton, O., who is conducting meetings at Grace Bible church spoke Wednesday evening to a good sized audience on the topic "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes". He pointed out the various judgments of the Christian, namely, as a sinner, as a son and as a servant. He urged his audience to do good works as heartily unto the Lord.

This evening Rev. Mitchell has chosen for his subject at the Shenango township church "A Nudist In a Graveyard". Friday night his topic will be "The Salvation of Infants".

City Zoning Hearings Are In Progress

E. Gene Schweinsberg, chairman of council's zoning committee reported today that residents of the First, Second and Third ward were heard last night when revised zoning of the city was discussed in city hall.

Residents of the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth wards, will be heard tonight, Mr. Schweinsberg reported.

He said that some of the residents of the First, Second and Third wards, presented complaints concerning the new set-up in those wards.

They are being checked today by Charles Cella, representative of the Institute of Local and State government consulting service of the University of Pennsylvania.

The check-up is being made to determine the feasibility of making changes from the proposed revised zoning.

Household Worker Affected By New Social Security

Myron Milbouer, manager of the New Castle social security office has announced that the work of those regularly employed in private homes will be credited to social security and the employer will be responsible for reporting wages, along with social security taxes to the collector of internal revenue.

The security office manager advises those affected to secure from him or the post office, a booklet entitled "Do You Have a Maid", which eplains whether or not the worker is brought under the new social security law which becomes effective Jan. 1. All regularly employed domestic workers will need a social security account number card after this date.

Soldiers Of 28th Division Healthiest At Camp Atterbury

CAMP ATTERBURY, Ind., Nov. 16—(INS)—Pennsylvania's 28th division soldiers training at Camp Atterbury are the healthiest G. I.'s in the fifth army.

Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, commandant, told state American Legion officials touring the camp that the Keystone state servicemen have the lowest sick rate in the fifth army . Only 18 soldiers out of the 19,000 troops in camp are hospitalized, he said.

The Legionnaires, headed by state commander Joseph S. McCracken of Kingston, toured the reservation as guests of the general. They included William P. Roan of Plymouth, William L. Windsor of Harrisburg and Edward A. Linsky and Dr. A. H. Wittman of Philadelphia.

Strickler said there are six members of the 28th division who are still hospitalizel as a result of the tragic railroad accident at Conshocton, O., on Sept. 11, when 33 soldiers were killed enroute to camp.

The Pennsylvania soldiers were described as being in good spirits and eagerly awaiting a 10-day Christmas leave which begins on Dec. 23.

Gets Damages For 'Shocking' Received In Penny Arcade

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 16.—(INS)—Michael F. Devack was paid $1,000 today in settlement of a damage suit based on a "shocking" experience at a penny arcade.

Devack testified in the action against Euphrasia Mazza that he put a penny into a machine advertised to deliver a slight electric shock. When nothing happened Devack said, he called an attendant who inserted another coin and told him to grip the two handles.

The plaintiff said he then received such a severe shock that he couldn't relaese the handles and suffered injuries to his left wrist shoulder and arm.

CHEESE BRAN MUFFINS

No creaming, no egg-beating—one easy mixing this Kellogg-quick way.

1 cup All-Bran
¾ cup milk
1 cup sifted flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg
2 tablespoons soft shortening
1 cup cheese grated
cheese strips

1. Combine All-Bran and milk in mixing bowl.
2. Sift flour, baking powder, salt together into same bowl. Add egg, shortening, grated cheese. Stir only until combined.
3. Fill greased muffin pans ⅔ full. Bake in preheated, moderately hot oven (400°F.) about 20 minutes. Place thin cheese strips on top of each muffin and continue baking about 5 min. 10 medium muffins!

CHRISTIAN WORSHIP

GOD IS SPIRIT, TO BE EXALTED IN SPIRIT AND TRUTH

Scripture—Isaiah 1:11-17; Luke 4:16; John 4:19--26; Acts 2:37-47; I Corinthians 11:17-34; Colossians 3:16-17; Hebrews 10:23-25

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

More than two thousand years ago, approximately 740 B. C., a Jewish prophet named Isaiah told his people how to worship God. He was not one to gloss over their sins. Speaking as one sent of God, he told them their mode of living was wicked, and that their ways of worshipping Jehovah were hypocritical.

"To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? said the Lord: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of goats."

"Your new moons and your appointed feasts My soul hateth... I am weary to bear them.

"And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide Mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

"Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings... Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow."

Ill-treatment of the poor and helpless by the rich and powerful could not be atoned for by offering sacrifices to God and praying to Him. Such worship was worthless in the eyes of the Lord—nay, more, He loathed such hypocrisies.

Briefly we may mention the episode of Jesus visiting His native town of Nazareth, and on the sabbath entering the synagogue. In every city He visited He invariably went to the synagogue to worship. We have recently studied the episode of His reading during the service and preaching—to the amazement of those who had known Him from childhood.

When He read from the scripture, the lesson must have been wonderful indeed. Sometimes in our church going we may encounter a pastor who reads the beautiful words from the Bible in lifeless manner, as if they had no meaning for him.

Or a Sunday school teacher for whom the lesson seems to have no interest, and who cannot make it as intensely interesting and helpful to the children as she should.

This may not be altogether the fault of the preacher or teacher. They may not have the personalities to allow their true feelings to register. This writer remembers vividly one minister, however, to whom every word of scripture; every phase of prayer, every hymn (which he sung lustily) seemed to be filled with life and meaning.

Most Jews hated Samaritans and avoided their land when they could do so. Jesus, however, determined to pass through the country on His way to Galilee.

There He encountered a woman at the well from whom He asked a drink. She was far from being a moral person; many must have despised her, but the Lord talked with her, telling her that He knew all about her.

When she questioned Him about the place of worship, He said "The hour cometh and now is when the true worshiper shall worship the Father in spirit and truth...God is a spirit: and they that worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth." He told her that He was Christ.

We must pass briefly over the gatherings of the early Christians, describing how they pooled their possessions, giving each man what he needed. They ate at one another's homes with "gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved."

In his letter to the Corinthians Paul chides the church members for their dissensions, and also for their careless, selfish and insincere manner of partaking of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

In our brief space we cannot do better than to quote the words on worship of Paul's letter to the Colossians:

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

"And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him."

Folks Of Fame

William Brewster was an American colonist and one of the leaders of the Pilgrims. He was born at Scrooby, England, circa 1566. He served as "post" or postmaster responsible for the relays of horses on the post road. About 1602 his neighbors began to assemble for worship, and in 1606 he joined them in organizing a separatist church from the Church of England. After a short imprisonment he moved to Holland in 1608 to obtain freedom of worship, and was chosen ruling elder of the congregation at Leyden. In 1619 he was arrested but escaped, and, back in London, obtained, with his associates, a land patent from the Virginia company. He emigrated to America on the Mayflower in 1620 and was one of the founders of the Plymouth Colony. He became elder, preacher and teacher, and by many is regarded as the pre-eminent leader of the Pilgrims. He died (probably) April 10, 1644.

Born at Westfield, N. J., April 27, 1897, William C. Foster began his business life with a steel company and shortly became its secretary and treasurer, then vice president and finally president. In 1944 he became assistant director in the purchase division of the Army Service Forces, later was director. In 1946 he was undersecretary of war on procurement for American Air Forces, and he was undersecretary of commerce from 1946-48. He served as deputy chief of the Economic Co-operation administration, and was recently appointed chief.

of his mother's hands and arms; connects her voice, her eyes and whole demeanor with unpleasantness. It's this association in the infant's nervous system which does most to excite him, disturb him and cause him to feel insecure.

In the Family

Now you can see why I have so often said that the most important relationship in the family even for the child's security, is the mother-father relationship The 'way they feel toward each other all the time or most of the time determines, chiefly, the kind of feelings and expressions of feelings with the voice, demeanor and movements toward the infant, event toward other persons. Constantly you have heard and read that the first need of the infant and child is love by his parents. But how very very hard for either parent to provide this love in abundance unless this love flows from the headwaters of affection felt and expressed between the parents.

Yet if your baby or young child (or adolescent son or daughter) seems to be jittery and insecure and you know that you and your husband have strained relations or are not affectionately companionable, don't feel hopeless. You might through your own loveliness improve these relationships. If you can't, you still might do a great deal to cultitvate loveliness toward your child and provide him with a tolerably secure home atmosphere. He's too precious for us to leave one stone unturned for his security.

Gold Points Out Contact Man In Spying

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Harry Gold, confessed wartime atom spy for Russia, on Wednesday identified New Yorker Abraham Brothman as a "contact man" he met while active in espionage in 1941.

Brothman, 36, and his business partner, Miss Miriam Moskowitz, are on trial in New York Federal court on conspiracy charges. It is alleged they persuaded Gold to testify falsely before a Federal grand jury investigating subversive activities in 1947.

Gold made his identification of Brothman in the midst of a cloak-and-dagger description of how the spy ring of which he was a member carried out its operations.

The Philadelphia biochemist, who is awaiting sentence for his own confessed part in the ring, of which jailed British atomic scientist Dr. Klaus Fuchs was a member, told a story of undercover operations matching anything Hollywood has produced.

Greeted With Code Names

Gold told how he and other agents greeted each other with code names in the teeming streets of Manhattan, passed blueprints back and forth like pennies, and knew each other only through the written instructions of ice-eyed Kremlin men.

In the course of his testimony, Gold dramatically pointed his finger at Brothman in the courtroom and identified him as a contact man he met September 29, 1941, as the result of orders given him by his Communist superior.

Asked what his Soviet superior told him to obtain from Brothman—a chemist—Gold said;

"I told him (Brothman) there were five major things he wanted. The first was anything relating to the manufacture of aviation gasoline. The second was any techniques for the manufacture of articles from natural or synthetic rubber. The third was any development in the manufacture of petroleum lubricants. The fourth had to do with colloidal graphite."

What It Meant

At this point Gold carefully spelled out "colloidal graphite" and said it meant lubricants used under high temperature conditions such as in steel mills. He continued:

"The fifth thing they wanted was information regarding the manufacture of strategic and organic chemicals — including acetone which is used as a solvent for smokeless powder and synthetic butyl alcohol."

Gold declared there was a final request from his Soviet bosses.

"It was a shotgun question," he declared. "It was to get anything and everything pertaining to military developments."

Asked if he continued to meet Brothman, Gold said he did, "for a period of years."

He was not asked specifically what, if any, material Brothman subsequently gave him, although Elizabeth Bentley, another self-confessed Red spy, yesterday testified the defendant handed her numerous blueprints.

Where Jerry Goes So Go His Pets

CHILLICOTHE, O., (INS)—And every where that Jerry goes . . . his pig and squirrel are bound to go.

That's the way it is with six-year old Jerry Peck, a first grader in school at Chillicothe.

His little pint-size porker, Susie, and fuzzy squirrel, Sugar, go with him to school every day. His mother, Mrs. Alma Peck, walks along so she can bring Susie and Sugar back home with her.

The little pig and squirrel both were gift. The grunter was so little and weak when she went to Jerry's house, she could hardly snort. But with a little feeding from a baby's bottle, Susie came along fine. Susie was one of 12 pigs and was one of the "runts" of the bunch.

The pig follows at Jerry's heels and the squirrel either runs along side or climbs up and rides on Jerry's shoulder.

But they have to wait everyday for Jerry to attend to his studies before he can play with them. It's his first year and he wants Susie and Sugar to be proud of him.

Youth Sentenced To Life In Prison For Slaying In Ohio

ZANESVILLE, O., Nov. 16 — (INS) — Nineteen-year-old Lee Leonard power was sentenced Wednesday in Zanesville to life in prison for the "World Series" slaying of James Omen, 66, last October 4.

The husky youth pleaded guilty to second degree murder when he was arraigned an hour ahead of schedule.

He had been indicated for first degree murder but the prosecution agreed to accept his plea to the lesser charge.

Common Pleas Judge Clarence J. Crossland passed sentence on the lesser charge on the recommendation of prosecutor Clarke B. Barbour. Barbour told newsmen he made the recommendation "in view of the evidence in the case."

A summer graduate of Zanesville high school, the youth confessed the slaying. Omen, while sitting alone in Pice's poolroom in Zanesville listening to the 1950 "World Series," was beaten to death, stabbed and his throat was slashed.

Power was picked up in Los Angeles several weeks after the murder.

A former Zanesville resident who had moved to Los Angeles recognized power from a newspaper picture and reported the observation to police.

Board Elects Three Teachers

Other Action At School Board Session On Wednesday Night

Three teachers were elected as temporary employes Wednesday night when the New Castle school board held its monthly business meeting in the administration building in East Street.

The three are Harry Floyd Whitman, Helen G. Papazickos, and Jean Wallace.

The board agreed to concur with the city council in any salary increases given employe of the city treasurer's office or the office of the wage tax collector. The board pays half the salaries of these offices.

The Optimists' Club was granted the use of the George Washington junior high school gymnasium for the night of December 28 when an all-star basketball game will be played.

The C. M. Clark Company of Pittsburgh was awarded the contract for an audiometer at its bid of $290.

Report Game Net Proceeds

Secretary John B. Bechtol reported that the net proceeds of the Benjamin Franklin-George Washington junior high school football game were $468.36 after expenses and taxes were paid.

The New Castle semi-pro football team asked for Taggart stadium for a Thanksgiving football game. The board explained that it is necessary to aerate the sod of the stadium and the work must be done before freezing weather sets in. For this reason it is impossible to grant the use of the stadium for Thanksgiving Day.

The Business and Professional Women were granted the use of the George Washington junior high school auditorium on December 2 for a matinee and evening show to be presented for charitable purposes.

The Sporting Goods Store was awarded the contract for 14 jackets to be awarded to football and basketball players at a price of $14.25 each.

Chinese And North Korean Reds Not Fraternizing Well

INCHON, Korea, Nov. 16—(INS)—Chinese and North Korean Communists may be allies in war but they do not get along very well together in captivity.

Eighth U. S. Army officials at Inchon reported today that they had to separate Chinese war prisoners from North Koreans—for the protection of the Chinese.

The officials said that the North Koreans had threatened to beat up the Chinese Reds for having prolonged the war by their intervention.

HOLD IT CLEMENTINE!

—New Castle News Photo

Mt. Jackson's senior class play is a riot of fun and will give the audience a full evening of laughs as the cast dramatizes Peggy Goodin's book, "Clementine". Lawrence Julian as "Hank" is about to have the thunder beat out of him with a football helmet by Shirley Rice, the play's tomboy, "Clementine". Shirley Wigley (left) who as "Kathy" has found boys interesting, will stop the show with her "come-hither' look. Curtain time is 8 p. m. Friday night.

MORAVIA

Mrs. Howard Gierling and son, Mrs. Thomas Perry Jr., and twin sons and Mrs. Thomas Perry Sr., spent Friday with the latters mother, Mrs. Tillie Lewis of Wheatland, Pa.

Mrs. Anna Stephenson and daughter Mrs. Joe Mielke of Willow Grove spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Stephenson.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wear were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Urey of Willow Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tindall and family, Mrs. Dale Snyder of New Castle and O. H. Parker of Pittsburgh.

SLIGHTLY CRYPTIC

LAWRENCE, Mass.—The cotton division of Pacific Mills bought a print design featuring two Egyptian vases decorated with supposedly authentic hieroglyphics. The design was abandoned when the foreman discovered that, upside down, the "hieroglyphics" were plain English. On one vase it said "His," on the other "Hers."

Elementary Students Benefit From Drills Held By Milanovich

In an effort to bring basketball to as many youngsters as possible, and also answer a request from S. Glenn McCracken, principal of the Highland and McGill elementary schools, Head High School Coach John Milanovich introduced nine of this year's floormen to wide-eyed sixth grade students yesterday at Arthur McGill in an exhibition of instruction.

Milanovich omitted no phase of the games fundamentals in an attempt to indoctrinate the younger element with the basic principals.

How much was absorbed by the youngsters cannot be readily ascertained but the interest was present.

Sansone, Latsko, Vitale, Boak, Fiorante, McKay, Cobau, Marinelli, Palumbo, were paced through spot layup shooting, outside shooting, the figure eight weave, a shuffling defense and methods of pivoting, for more than an hour.

Legal Battle Looms Over Custody Of Boy In Abduction

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—A legal battle loomed today over custody of a six-year-old Williams Grove boy abducted from a schoolyard in central Pennsylvania Monday and taken to the home of an uncle in Tampa, Fla.

The news of the child's safety was telephoned to the boy's mother and friends by a Tampa attorney.

The mother, Mrs. Mary Collins, 24, had agreed to the adoption of her son, Eddie, by Raceway operator Roy E. Richwine, Jr. The papers were to be signed Monday at Carlisle.

The child's whereabouts were revealed to the mother and Richwine by Attorney Paul Lake who said he represented the boy's uncle, James D. Collins, of Tampa.

Santa Claus Brings Britain Some Dough

LONDON, (INS)—Toys are earning millions of dollars for Britain and record-breaking cargoes of them are today on their way to the United States and other parts of the world for Christmas.

In the first eight months of this year toys worth $7,738,200 were shipped to all parts of the world, British Board of Trade officials said. For the same period in 1949 the figure was $5,443,200.

With the purchase of $2,940,000 worth of toys already delivered this year, Australia is the biggest buyer so far. The United States is second with $808,800, and Canda a close third with $789,00.

In the next couple of months it is estimated that a further $2,800,000 worth of toys will leave the British factories in a race to be in shops in a score of foreign countries in time for Santa Claus.

And to keep pace with the demand British toymakers are now working at top pressure.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER

ENGINE VALVES AND HEART VALVES

Engine valves get leaky and out of order. The auto mechanic takes them out and grinds them. He makes a new seat and regulates the length of the stem. When he finishes the job the engine purrs along as quietly as veer.

Heart valves get leaky too. They become noisy and do not work properly. They perform like engine valves.

The doctor cannot take them out and repair them. He must do his work with the engine running.

Sometimes the valves recover so that the heart goes along all right. Sometimes the repair job is not so good and the best plan is to cut down on the load.

Engines do not worry but people do. It does not seem to help much.

U. S. production of softwood plywood increased about two per cent to 1,977,000,000 sq. ft. in 1949.

Studies Fingerprints Of Diseased Persons

LONDON—(INS)—A top flight fingerprint expert at Scotland Yard believes doctors may soon be able to detect disease in the same way as detectives find criminals—by fingerprints.

Writings in the science magazine "Nature," Robert Cherrill claimed that he has found that certain white streaks appear on the left-hand fingerprints of some sick people.

He explained that these streaks commonest on the ring and little fingers are caused by creases running across the ridge and furrows making up the fingerprint pattern.

Cherrill said that unlike scars they are not permanent, though they usually last a long time.

Helped by three London doctors, Cherrill found the streaks in the prints of patients with infantile paralysis, lesions caused by radium, epilepsy, poisoning, and skin complaints.

He also found them in one in eight of the apparently healthy people he has examined. Cherrill suggests that the streaks may be a sign of impending ill-health. He wrote:

"A prolonged scientific analysis of fingerprints would in some cases supply evidence of incipient disease and of its progress."

Cherrill was led to this theory while examining the fingerprints of murder victims. He found that the left-hand of a dead man is nearly always more susceptible to germ attack than the right.

RUBBER GLOVES

To dry rubber gloves after washing, slip over slim bottle so fingers can drain free of water. When dry, put a little talcum powder in the gloves to prevent sticking.

WEATHER GOSSIP

A lot of people are aware of the unusual weather and hope that no one does anything about it. Anyway, not unless it gets worse.

Weather has played an important part in the history of man. Climate, which is nothing more than permanent weather, has made and destroyed nations. Even in this day of weather conditioned offices, schools, stores, theaters and other places where people congregate, the weather has a profound influence on the individual. Such expressions as "blue Monday," "sunny Wednesday," "the hunger moon," "dog days," and many more are indicative of how the kind of weather conditions a person's behavior and even his thoughts. Superstitions associated with the weather are practically endless.

Nearly every one has at one time or another been his or her own weather bureau. No? You have never looked up at a gloomy sky on an Easter morn for some sign that would justify the wearing of a new outfit? What about you football and golf enthusiasts, fishermen and hunters? Even the housewife attempts prognostications, especially on wash day.

Weather is universal and there is little, or nothing that one can do to alter it. Yet, plans, both small and large, as well as tangible proposals have been projected in an attempt to change it. Many of you probably remember the plans for a gigantic breakwater designed to change the course of the Gulf Stream and make the climate of both the Middle Atlantic States and New England a semi-tropical one. The imaginative artist illustrating the newspaper story went so far as to show the Statue of Liberty in a lush setting of palms. The famous New York skyline appeared with a Florida foreground.

Most people, even youngsters, declared that weather has changed with the passing years. Who has not referred to some particularly cold winter of the past? As a matter of record, little or no change takes place in the weather during the average human life span. Sure, there will be irregularities such as we had during the mild winters of 1948 and 1949. But, in the long run weather is reduced to a common average. However, it may be interesting to note that the U. S. Weather Bureau has added two more days to the growing period of crops in the middle West. This may actually be due to delayed frosts or perhaps, to the acclimatization of plants to their environment. Also interesting is that the same observation has been made for this immediate vicinity. Howard Butler of the Senior High school, a keen weather observer, notes the same lengthening of the growing season in the New Castle area.

We are having a mild fall, that is, at the moment, although snow has been predicted for two days hence. We had here in New Castle notably mild falls in 1923 and again in 1936. Last year our first so-called frost did not descend upon us until October 26. My notes show that all but the hardiest vegetation was thoroughly 'cooked.' Coincidently, this year we had our first frost, a mild one, on the same day. A few days later we had another of about the same intensity. The damage done was spotty, i.e., it varied with the location. A severe frost is not as discriminating. The one falling last Sunday morning was very deadly; even geraniums wilted in the face of the onslaught.

If more or less persistent changes are noted during certain years it does not necessarily hold that the changes are permanent. If we could predict the weather with absolute certainty it would be a calamity. Most of us would have to find something else to talk about.

BYWAYS

If one has the fortitude to fish in the late fall he may frequently hit the jackpot. Such was the case on Armistice Day when a couple of local anglers sojourned at Lake LeBouef.

Fishing deep with live bait (suckers) Tom Thompson (mechanic at Henry Rodgers) of this city and his brother Bob of Canneton, caught two 'lunge, one of them a fine 30 pound specimen.

Try To Win Rebels With Comic Books

MANILA—(INS)—The defense department is sugar-coating government propaganda in an effort to win back the Huk rebels by circulating scores of thousands of comic books in the Huk-infested areas.

Moreover, defense officials have prepared posters depicting Huk atrocities in order to expose the rebels "real mission". These posters will be posted in every town and village throughout the Philippines.

Actually, the poster angle has been tried time and time again by other government agencies in their ceaseless efforts to counteract "viciously lying" Huk propaganda in outlying districts of Central Luzon.

But the release of comic books to the Huk rebels themselves is a new feature which defense officials are exploiting to the limit.

Staff artists and script writers have been recruited by the department from the ranks of the Philippine army, given pen and ink, and scores of story material on which to base their scripts.

A spokesman for Defense Secretary Ramon Magsaysay said professional writers have been invited to help in the project by submitting story material for scripts.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says 50 degrees is the best temperature at which to store hatching eggs.

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING

Mrs. Donald F. Copson, president, presided when members of the Pennsylvania Epsilon Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority gathered Wednesday evening in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A.

Mrs. Howard Frew, as guest speaker during the program, gave a most instructive talk to the group on "The History and Scope of Beta Sigma Phi," taken from the Pledge Training Manual.

Mrs. Copson announced that because of illness she is taking an indefinite leave of absence from the sorority. Mrs. Howard Frew will assume her duties as leader temporarily.

After the meeting the members made 48 Thanksgiving favors under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Ramsey, a member of the service committee, which Mrs. Paul Reed, chairman; and Mrs. George Getty, also a member of the committee, assisting.

November 15 being Exemplar Day, it was anounced that Mrs. Leonard Creedman and Mrs. Paul Reed are eligible for their Exemplar degrees.

A special guest of the evening was Miss Beta Sigma Phi who will make her appearance at a local ladies' store the week of December 1-9, at which time her complete wardrobe will be on display.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostsss, Mrs. Michael Zuk and Mrs. Alex Grinn, at a table gaily appointed in the seasonal motif.

The sorority will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 29, in the Green room of the Y. W. C. A.

TRINITY GUILD HAS GUEST NIGHT

Guest night was observed Wednesday, when the Junior Guild assembled in the Guild hall of Trinity Episcopal church. Mrs. Harry Culliford conducted devotions.

Mrs. Dudley M. Arnold, program chairman, introduced Miss Margaret Cowmeadow who gave an excellent review of Frank Slaughter's book, "The Stubborn Heart". Miss Cowmeadow was enthusiastically received.

Mrs. T. Gwyn Lewis presided at the business session, when plans were made for a project in the near future for the Christmas season.

Later refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, decorated with a fruit centerpiece, flanked by yellow tapers. Miss Elizabeth Reis was responsible for the decorations. Mrs. Culliford and Mrs. Earl Miller presided at the tea services.

Miss Elizabeth Reis, Miss Florence Hitchen, Mrs. Donald Carpenter, Mrs. Richard Hietsch, Mrs. David J. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. W. A. McNally and Mrs. Jack Brown composed the social committee.

A Christmas program will be presented December 13, in the Guild hall.

BIRTHDAY HONORED BY YOUNG MATRONS

Mrs. Sam Marcatullio, of Bartram avenue, received the Young Matrons club, Wednesday evening and the birthday of Mrs. Fred Stropich was honored. She received a selection of lovely gifts.

Cards were played during the evening and the club token was won by Mrs. Dom Scarnati.

Special guests invited were: Mrs. Adam Caranchy, Mrs. Frank Marcatullio, Dolly Pauline, and Mary Jane Marcatullio.

At a later hour, a birthday lunch was served by the hostess on a table nicely arranged. A birthday cake presented by Mrs. Dom Scarnati centered the table. She assisted the hostess in serving.

MISSIONARY GROUP PLANS FOR PARTY

Members of the C. C. Missionary Society of the Central Christian church were entertained on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Jack Hopper, of Bleakley avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Jenkins led the devotional period, and an interesting program was presented by Mrs. Charles Shoaff, who spoke on the subject, "New Pilgrims Join Us In Thanksgiving."

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dan Garrity.

On December 12, the next regular meeting will be at the home of Helen and Clara Strobel on Adams street, at which time there will be a Christmas party with gift exchange.

Lucky Nine Club

Mrs. Angelo Carvella, West Pittsburg, was hostess to members of the Lucky Nine Club Tuesday evening at her home.

Five hundred was the pleasant pastime with honors going to Mrs. Louise Stroje and Mrs. Mary Ponziani.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at the home of Mrs. Albert Dudich, West Pittsburg.

ST. MARY'S LADIES HAVE FALL DINNER

The annual fall dinner of St. Mary's ladies was held Tuesday evening in St. Mary's church auditorium. Mrs. Edward Hanna and Mrs. O. L. Murphy were co-chairmen.

At 5 o'clock, a delicious roast beef dinner was served. Invocation was offered prior to the dinner. The tables were beautifully arranged for the occasion.

President Mrs. Mary Maher welcomed the guests and members. Special guests were: Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter, Rev. Fr. Francis ing and Rev. Fr. Albert Garalka.

Tables of cards and contests were in play during the social hour afterwards. Mrs. Anne Mulcahy and Mrs. E. Callahan were bridge winners; Mary Deely won the 500 prize and Mary Rodgers and Mrs. Anna Eagan the contest prizes.

The annual event proved a highly successful affair. Aides who assisted the co-chairmen were: Mrs. E. Clark, Mrs. B. Taylor, Mrs. F. Acker, Mrs. H. Patton, Mrs. J. Baldauf, Mrs. J. McCarthy, Mrs. S. Gribben, Mrs. F. Flynn, Mrs. E. Doran and Miss Mary T. Rocks.

December 12, is the next meeting. A social hour will follow the business.

WALMO KENSINGTON WITH MRS. WILLIAMS

Mrs. Joe Williams of Walmo graciously entertained members of the Walmo Kensington club in her home on Wednesday. The hostess served a dainty lunch in the dining room at 1 o'clock, with Mrs. Howard Humphrey and Mrs. Ralph Nevel assisting. A variety of fall flowers in several hues decorated the room for the occasion.

Sewing and chatting were the pleasant afternoon diversions. Mrs. John Madigan, a former member now residing in Hawley, Pa., and who has been house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forney for several weeks, was special guest of the event.

Plans were made for a Christmas party and names were drawn for a gift exchange. The party will be held December 20 at the home of Mrs. Blair Alverson, Walmo.

Y.M.L. CLUB HAS EVENING PARTY

Mrs. Anthony Cotelesse of Pearson street was the gracious hostess to members of the Y.M.L. club Wednesday evening. The door prize was captured by Mrs. Tony Mitolo.

Cards provided the diversion for the evening, with Mrs. Anthony Peluso, Mrs. Joseph Cugini and Mrs Pat Offredo winning prizes. Special guests were Mrs. Armon Ascione and Miss Mary Hudak.

A tempting lunch was later served by the hostess, aided by Miss Hudak. On December 6 the club will gather at the home of Mrs. Joseph DeMucci, Lutton street, with plans to be made for a Christmas party at that time.

King's Chapel W.S.C.S.

Women's Society of Christian Service had an all day quilting Wednesday at King's Chapel Methodist church. A tureen luncheon was served at noon with Mrs. Clell Springer as hostess.

Mrs. Frank Neal led the worship service, while Mrs. F. A. Pinkerton was the program leader. Mrs. Howard W. Dean discussed the W.S.C.S. Conference at Erie. Mrs. Pinkerton told of the sub-district meeting at Wesley Methodist church.

The King's Chapel group will take a cake this evening to Wesley Methodist church for the birthday party.

Mrs. D. A. VanHorn was elected vice-president and Mrs. F. A. Pinkerton was named spiritual life secretary of the society.

A tureen luncheon and gift exchange will feature a holiday party December 20 at the home of the Misses Sara and Viola Wallace, 215 Meyer avenue, with Mrs. George Heckathorne and Mrs. Thomas Wallace as co-hostesses.

Miss Peggy DeEulio, of Dewey avenue, received the Silver Needle club, Wednesday evening, and president Mrs. Catherine Bloise, presided.

Chirstmas names were exchanged. Christmas party plans were made, the event to be December 27, with Mrs. Catherine Bloise, of Walmo.

Special guests were: Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. June DeEulio, and Mrs. Mary Costantino. Mrs. Rose DeEulio aided the hostess serve a dainty lunch.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR THE H. McCLINTOCKS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClintock, Jr., of Clen-Moore boulevard were the honored guests, Wednesday evening at a farewell party held at a suburban tearoom on the Wilmington road.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morgan, of Maitland Lane. Members of the immediate families were in attendance.

The evening hours were enjoyed informally with dancing and other diversions. At additional entertainment a unique dance was offered by Grant Brundage, Jr., and Georgia Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wagner of Sharon, Pa., were the out of town guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. McClintock, Jr. (the former Grace Morgan) are to leave shortly for Phoenix, Ariz., where Mr. McClintock will assume new duties.

At a later hour, the honored couple were presented with a lovely gift from their many friends in remembrance of the occasion.

FRIENDLY RELATIONS CLUB PLANNING PARTY

Mrs. Frank Cozza, of Clen-Moore boulevard opened her home, Wednesday evening to members of the Friendly Relations club. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party, on December 13. It will be at the home of Mrs. Anthony Dominicis, 615 Pearson s' eet, and an exchange also to be held.

An informal evening was spent with prizes for cards going to Mrs. Frank Carbone, Mrs. William SanFelice and Mrs. Anthony Chirozzi.

Special guest attending was Mrs. Don Mooney and she received a gift.

During the evening, piano selections were offered by little Rosemary Cozza, daughter of the hostess. A dainty lunch was served later in the evening. Mrs. Anthony Dominicis assisting in serving. December 13, is the next meeting.

N. N. Club Meeting

"Five hundred" provided a pleasing pastime when members of the N. N. club were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Snyder, South Jefferson street.

High score awards were received by Mrs. Earl White, Mrs. Frank Sargeant, and Mrs. Wallace McKee.

The hostess served a delicious lunch prepared in the Thanksgiving motif, assisted by Mrs. Paul Whiteside and Mrs. Frank Sargent.

Mrs. James Bell, Neshahnock avenue, will be hostess for the next meeting on November 28.

Section Two Sews

Section Two gathered Wednesday in the First Christian church the day being spent in sewing. Lunch was served at noon by Mrs. Alfred Beavon and Mrs. William Workman, hostesses.

Mrs. Robert Clark presided when plans were made for charitable projects. A holiday luncheon has been planned for Wednesday, December 20, at noon in the church.

COUNCIL TO HAVE MEMBERSHIP MEETING

New Castle Section of the National Council of Jewish Women will hold its November meeting Tuesday evening, November 21, at 8:15 o'clock at Temple Israel.

The first vice-president, Mrs. Sherman Samuels, will preside over this meeting, with the president, Mrs. Myron Milbouer, extending greetings to the new members.

A hilarious original skit written by one of the members will be presented at this time. Mrs. Alec Samuels, chairman of Ways and Means for Council, announces that all plans are complete for the Thanksgiving Eve Ball to be held November 22 at the New Castle Country club.

Section One Meets

Section One of the First Christian church was entertained Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs Charles Young, Wallace avenue. Mrs. G. S. Bennett offered the opening prayer.

Mrs. Frank Johnston, the vice-president, presided when the group voted to send a Christmas gift of $25 to the Carrie Hetrick Seay home, Somerset.

Mrs. H. C. Buchanan, Mrs. Ray Showalter and Mrs. Arthur Eckles were named as the nominating committee.

A refreshing lunch was served by the hostess with Mrs. Frank Ziegler, co-hostess, as an aide. Mrs. Charles Young, Wallace avenue, will entertain at a holiday party and gift exchange Wednesday, December 13. Mrs. Harry Horner, Mrs. G. S. Bennett and Mrs. Arthur Eckles compose the ommittee of arrangements.

I.V.D. Class Dines

Members of the I.V.D. class enjoyed a tureen dinner Tuesday evening in the First Christian church.

Mrs. Mary Workman presided when various charitable and church projects were discussed.

A holiday party is being planned for Wednesday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock, with Miss Ada Stevens, Mrs. Earl Waddington and Mrs. Alice Johnson as hostesses.

Circle Three Gathers

Members of Circle Three of the Missionary society of the Second Baptist church held their meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Sankey street, recently.

After a period of singing, the meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Vivian Alexander. Devotionals were led by the Chaplain, Mrs. Nora Barnes. Plans were made for the return of the "Television Program" to be held Sunday, Nov. 26. Ways of increasing the membership were also discussed.

The group were concerned with the talk on "Why We Sometimes Fail to Receive Answers to Our Prayers." Later the hostess, aided by her daughters, Miss Ruth Quarles and Mrs. Ernest Harris, served a dainty lunch.

Young Chic Club

Miss Rosemarie Colella, of 1013 Williams street, was a charming hostess, Wednesday evening to members of the Young Chic club.

During business Mary Canfora presided and it was decided to plan a Christmas gift exchange. Television and chatting were pastimes during the evening. Special guests attending were: Helen Roscetti and Rosemarie DeGannaro.

Mis. Mary Canfora captured the door prize during the evening. Later the hostess served a dainty lunch her mother, Mrs. Phil Colella assisting at the nicely arranged table.

November 29, is the meeting with Miss Florence DeCarbo, of 814 Harrison street.

Edwards Missionary Society

Edwards Missionary society of the First Christian church was entertained for the November meeting in the home of Miss Laura Snider, North Mercer street, Tuesday evening. Mrs. Harold Dunlap conducted a period of devotions.

The speaker of the hour was Mrs A. W. Ziegler, who effectively spoke on the topic "Mission Work In Tibet". A business meeting followed with Miss Emma Paton president, in charge. The December meeting will take place at the church. Luncheon was served by Mrs. Ira Snider, assisted by Mrs Claude Patton. Special guest was Miss Ina Smith.

Victory Bible Class

Mrs. Frank Wimer, East Washington street, entertained the Victory Bible class of St. John's Lutheran church with her sister, Miss Jennie Peterson, as co-hostess.

Devotions were led by Miss Mary Riffer, who explained the synods and other divisions of the church.

Mrs. Harry Delin presided when plans were made for a holiday party which will be in the form of a covered dish dinner and gift exchange in the church Friday evening, December 15.

Mrs. Charles Rick, Newton Square, Pa., Mrs. Bertha Goebel and Miss Shirrel Hinkson were special guests.

Fall Vegetable Crop Estimates Show Good Yield

HARRISBURG — Latest estimates on production of various commercial vegetable crops grown in Pennsylvania show that favorable weather conditions during September brought increases in the estimated production of Danish cabbage, carrots, celery and fall spinach, the State Department of Agriculture reports following a federal-state survey.

Production of each crop, except spinach, will be greater this year than last.

Production of Danish cabbage in the state is now indicated to be 27,300 tons compared with 24,300 in 1949 and the 10-year 1939-48 average of 23,000 tons.

Pennsylvania commercial production of carrots is estimated to be 600,000 bushels, whereas the 1949 production was 480,000 and the 10-year average was 590,000 bushels.

Celery production in the state, as of October 1, was indicated to be 156,000 half-crates compared with 136,000 last year and the average of 251,000.

Marine Corps Vets Enlisting Now Would Keep Former Ranks

Major H. V. Joslin, officer in charge of the Marine Corps recruiting district of Pittsburgh, has announced that authority has been received to enlist former Marines in the Marine Reserve Corps for immediate duty, who are not now members of the reserve and who were last discharged with the rank of sergeant or below.

Men so enlisted will be appointed to the rank they held upon their last discharge. Enlistments will be for an indefinite period.

Former Marines enlisted under this new authority will be sent to either Camp Lejeune, N. C., or to Cherry Point, N. C.

Can Of Sardines Saves Boy's Life

MANILA — (INS) — A can of sardines saved the life of 11-year-old Benito Alco during the recent disastrous eruption of Mt. Hibokhibok. The eruption claimed the lives of 66 persons including Benito's parents and eight brothers and sisters.

Benito's home stood at the foot of Mt. Hibokhibok, in the island of Camaguin, in Central Philippines.

Early that fatal morning, Benito's parents sent the young boy to the nearby town of Manbajao, the principal village in Camaguin Island, to procure a can of sardines for the family's breakfast.

Philippine Red Cross officials, arriving the next day at the stricken area, found the boy in Manbajao. They reported Benito's story to the Manila press.

Big Drop In Number On State Relief Rolls Is Reported

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16. — Just how closely Pennsylvania's public assistance rolls are tied to economic conditions throughout the state has been strikingly illustrated by the changes which have occurred during the past few months.

At mid-March, when the rolls reached their peak as a result of the coal strike, 492,000 persons were receiving public assistance in the state. Settlement of the coal strike early in March removed the last major obstacle from the path of industrial improvement. Employment rose rapidly from that time on and the effects of the rise have been reflected by a sharp drop in the assistance rolls. In the seven months from the middle of March to the middle of October, the rolls have dropped to 340,000 persons—a decrease of 152,000 to their lowest level in more than a year and a half.

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 16.—Susan Hayward, Hollywood's most gorgeous redhead, wants them to dig up more wicked woman roles for her so she can act all over the place and maybe get into the Oscar running again.

Says Susan:

"I have such a role in 'I Can Get It For You Wholesale' and I have another one coming up in 'David and Bathsheba'. And I am not at all sorry.

"I like being a wicked woman because I am an actress who likes to emote and such women are always emoting all over the set."

Likes Dramatic Roles

It was because Susan looked as if she might have had a mean streak in her that she was originally tested for the Scarlett part in "Gone With the Wind". She did not get the part but she was cast in a lot of reasonable facsimiles in pictures that followed.

She played temptresses, lady drunks and gun molls, and revelled in the parts. She was nominated for an Oscar for her gin-guzzling role in "Smashup" and last year for her performance in "My Foolish Heart".

In "I Can Get it For You Wholesale" she plays a beautiful, ambitious woman who sets about to use every means at her command to get to the top.

Liked Her Work

They shot quite a bit of the picture in New York's garment manufacturing district where Susan used to work as a $35-a-day model.

"That $35-a-day sounds like a lot of money," the red-haired beauty reminisced, "but I didn't get more than a few days of work a month. I modeled for everything from ads for bread showing me on picnics to magazine covers."

She was Edythe Marrener then a graduate of a girls' commercial high school in her native Brooklyn.

"When I came out of school, I wanted to act," she said, "and took some dramatic lessons. But I had to make a living and like many another girl, turned to modeling. It was always nip and tuck whether I was going to hold the line with the budget.

"It was a magazine cover that got me my first movie bid. David F. Selznick saw me as a redhead on a magazine cover at the time he was searching for someone to play Scarlett. He tested me but I was a 'green' red head without any training and flunked out."

Portrays Temptress

Susan portrays Bathsheba the temptress in 20th Century-Fox's big Biblical epic which goes before the cameras next week.

Susan is splashing around in a bathtub atop her palace when David first sees her. He is so smitten that he sends her husband, Uriah the Hittite, off to be killed in battle so that he can claim Bathsheba.

Bathsheba becomes one of David's many wives and through sheer witchery wins his affections 100 per cent from the others. The role, Susan says, is made to order for her.

Captain Marvel Escapes Again

NEWCASTLE — (INS) — Movie serial hero Captain Marvel is the idol of the children of Hebburn-on-Tyne, County Durham, and for nine Saturday mornings they cheered his daring exploits to the echo.

Episode Nine had ended with Marvel in dire and deadly peril—as it must be in all good movie serials. The youngsters of Hebburn eagerly tracked to the local movie theatre to see Episode Ten, and relieve their week-long agony of suspense.

But in the meantime the movie theater had been burned down. Then came the tears. The youngsters would never know what had occurred and the gallant captain was in such a spot.

Just as the youngsters were preparing to leave for their homes Maurice Dawe, owner of the burned cinema, appeared on the scene.

He was the one man who knew what really happened to Marvel.

Patiently Dawe explained how the captain escaped death. The tears were dried and the suspense was over. The children returned happily homewards. Their hero had been saved again.

Button Sewing Tailor Trouble

LONDON—(INS)—Tailors in London's Savile Row, Mecca of the well-dressed world, are bitterly divided as to how the buttons on their elegant suitings should be sewn.

The finer points of button sewing arose when a prominent Savile Row tailer sued a client for $112, the price of a tuxedo suit.

The client protested that the suit was unsatisfactory—one of the buttons on the jacket was sewn right through the lining.

A judge in Westminster County Court seemed to speak for most men forced by circumstances to sew on their own buttons, when he said:

"When I sew my buttons on I sew them right through the lining."

But several witnesses were aghast.

Said a hotel owner, Mrs. Edith Englestone:

"No high-class tailor would sew on buttons so that the stitching showed through the back."

The client won the case; the judge ruled that the offending garment was not satisfactory at the price.

An executive meeting of the Bespoke Tailors' Guild discussed the fine art of button sewing at a hurriedly-called conference but decided to disagree "fifty-fifty" on the question.

The tailoring establishment said of Edward Packer:

"Even if the button is stitched right through the lining it should not show.

"Strength should be reconciled with elegance—if a detail like that strikes the eye as offensive, it is bad."

Traveling Salesmen Are Great Talkers

VIENNA. — (INS) — A curious Vienna newspaper is on record with the answer to a curious question—What are traveling salesmen up to when they aren't busy selling?

According to the Arbeiter Zeitung, which assigned a reporter to find the answer, they talk, mostly.

To find out what they talk about, the reporter hitch-hiked back and forth across Austria with traveling salesmen recording the topics of their conversation.

He reported that talking apparently is "their second nature" and they invariably exercised their gift of gab on these subjects during the 300-mile journey:

1. First 50 miles—jokes. Traveling salesmen write down all new jokes they hear because they consider them prime "weapons." Most were based on racial dialects, politics and the farmer's daughter.

2. Next 50 miles—women. The reporter said "many women would not believe how indiscreet traveling salesmen can be, and of how they exaggerate."

3. Last 200 miles—war adventures. "Every salesman was a hero in the war, having performed feats of great daring all the way from Russia to Africa."

Customers' Corner

It's 91 years since we opened our first store.

We're proud of the fact that down through the years our customers have shown, by their patronage, their approval of our low-cost, low-profit policy.

But we are prouder of our conviction that right now A&P is serving you better than ever before.

Our stores are better; the quality and variety of our food is greater; and we have the finest, best trained group of employees in our history.

But we are not content to rest on our oars.

We will appreciate any suggestions you may have for making your A&P a better place to shop. Please write:

Local Soldier Was In Paratroop Attack In Korea

In a letter to The News, Pfc. Ralph Hall, local soldier, who is with the 187th Regiment of the 11th Airborne Division, recounts the thrilling events of the mass jump made by the paratroopers at Sukchon.

Pfc. Hall has already received newspaper clippings of the jump which were carried in The News on the date the jump took place, and he states that the operation was all that was described, and more.

A great number of prisoners were taken at the time, he stated. The jump was made at a height of 500 feet, and he stated that the 187th lost a lot of good men in the operation.

Ruth Gustafson Class Will Attend Revival

Members of the Ruth Gustafson Bible class of the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street, will attend the revival services in progress at the church tonight in a body. The service will open at 7:30 p.m. with Rev. Calvin Peters of Rochester, N. Y., as evangelist.

Rev. Peters spoke before a large audience at the church, Wednesday evening on the subject of "Revival." Other subjects to be used during the series, includes: "God's Atomic Bomb and End of the World"; "What Time Is It"; "The Know So of Sanctification"; "Perfection In Love"; "Ten Sure Signs of the Second Coming" and "Divine Healing."

Fraternity Fined $2,000 For Drinking Party At Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 16—(INS)—The Psi Upsilon fraternity on the University of Michigan campus was $2,000 poorer—and much wiser—today.

The U. of M. subcommittee on discipline yesterday fined the fraternity $2,000 as a result of a drinking party held in the Psi Upsilon house, Nov. 3. The subcommittee charged members and their dates, many under legal drinking age, were served liquor at the party.

In addition to the fine, the fraternity was placed on social probation for the remainder of the school year. This means the group is barred from holding any social activities until next June.

Many Weather Flights Made Over North Pole

EIELSON AIR FORCE BASE, Alaska, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The air force wrote into the books today a new Arctic record — 375 weather flights over the North Pole.

The most recent flight was made by a B-29 of the 375th Strategic Reconnaissance Squadron.

The Super Fortress, nicknamed "Lonesome Polecat," made the flight of almost 4,000 miles in 15 hours and 15 minutes with a 13-man crew. It took off and landed at Eielson Air Field, 26 miles southeast of Fairbanks and 125 miles south of the Arctic Circle.

Latest In Series

The flight was the latest in a series scheduled every 48 hours for the last three years to record atmospheric conditions near the North Pole, from whence come many of the storms that strike Canada and the United States.

Navigation, one of the toughest crew jobs, was done by two officers. Radio navigational aids are impossible in the silent regions of no landmarks. Converging lines of magnetic force play strange tricks with the compass, long twilights prevent the use of sun, moon or stars for celestial navigation.

Makes 39th Trip

It was the 39th trip to the pole and back for Master Sgt. Ennis A. Hilbrant of Phoenix, Ariz., flight engineer.

In command of the Lonesome Polecat were Capt. Edward N. Pollock of Wyoming, Penn., and First Lt. Carl W. Optiz, of Ludington, Mich. Rear Admiral Clifton A. F. Sprague, commander of the Alaska sea frontier, was honorary commander.

Others on the flight included: Navigators, Capt. Peter Stonis, Cleveland, and Capt. Augustine F. Delison of Jeannette, Pa.; weather observer, First Lt. William R. LaRue, Meyersdale, Pa., radio operators, Sgt. George A. Duannic of Maumee, Ohio., and Cpl. William H. Kelley, Abington, Mass., and drop sound operator James A. Duquette of Rochester, N. H.

Placing Leaves On Garden Plots

Leaves, myriads of them ,are daily being hauled from city thoroughfares and instead of them being disposed of in dumps, they are being available to persons who make gardens, according to Joe O'Leary, street commissioner.

Only leaves which are permeated by considerable dirt are hauled to the dumps, he explained.

Movie Romances Help Maylayans

LONDON—(INS) — Movie love scenes may be maligned by western sociologists, but a British official today credited them with a good influence in Malaya.

The civilizing effect of the great lovers of the movies upon the Malayans is disclosed by R. G. D. Houghton, commissioner for labor in Malay, in his annual report issued by the British Colonial office. Houghton said:

"Although many parents are still regrettably keen to marry off their daughters very early and for financial consideration, love matches are becoming increasingly common, thanks, perhaps to the influence of the cinema."

Houghton reported that the general standard of living among workers of all race in Malaya is improving. He said that signs of the increasing prosperity include the facts many Malayan workers now own good quality wrist watches and ride high-priced British bicycles in preference to cheap Japanese bicycles which were very common before World War Two.

Marriage Market Sags In Britain

LONDON—(INS)—A sharp sag in the "marriage market" in Britain is revealed in the Registrar-General's latest report.

Wedding figures for England and Wales are below the average for the years since the war, while Scotland experienced the lowest number of marriages since 1939.

No official explanation for the drop in the matrimony market is given but representatives of 2,000,000 women, in conference at Bournemouth, Hampshire, gave the shortage of homes as a keynote.

"It is a case of love locked out'," said one delegate at the conference.

Scotland's representative, Miss Mable Cornwall, gave the tragic example of Glasgow where there was a waiting list of 100,000 for houses.

"If a young husband put his name down immediately on marriage it was estimated that he would have to wait 25 years for a house," Miss Cornwall said.

STILL AFLOAT

BOSTON—Superstitious old salts believe a ship is due for an unlucky career if anything goes wrong at its launching. However, the launching of the U. S. frigate Constitution had to be postponed twice in 1797 because it stuck on the ways. Yet it had a glorious career as "Old Ironsides" and is still afloat at Boston Navy Yard.

Only state in the Union not having a state highway patrol is Georgia.

PUTTING ON SQUEEZE

VIENNA—Romanians who use automobiles for pleasure driving may buy gasoline only at the "free" market rate of $1.88 per gallon, under a new government decree. Black market gasoline in Austria costs 62 cents a gallon.

Mrs. Billy Sunday Talks Of Present Day Evangelism

By MARGARET BREWER
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ATLANTA, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Billy Sunday, widow of the famous evangelist who swapped a baseball glove for the pulpit, said today that modern evangelists are hitting "home runs."

Mrs. Sunday is in Atlanta to attend the Billy Graham revival.

She said:

Mrs. Sunday continued:

"I notice an upward trend now. There's a new anxiety and eagerness among the people of this country. The evangelists who have been in the field 'pitching' during the Godless years are now within sight of 'home plate'."

She explained:

"Part of this religious reawakening is due to the normal revolutions of the cycle, and part due to unsettled world conditions."

Mrs. Sunday added:

Some Still Need 'Workout'

"Many sections of the country still need a spiritual 'workout'. Some churches have discontinued Sunday night services."

The 82-year-old widow recalled:

"We always had capacity crowds at our meetings. The two Billies are a lot alike—except that 'Dad' refused to be hemmed in by microphones.

"One time technicians placed nine mikes on the platform, but Mr. Sunday scooted about so much that they were of little use."

She laughed:

"He was a rugged individualist."

Microphones Weren't Needed

"Anyway," she added, "microphones weren't needed. Mr. Sunday's listeners were asked before the meetings not to make a sound — not to even cough — and they didn't!"

Mrs. Sunday also recalled that ladies were asked to remove their hats at "Dad's" services.

She commented:

"We wore much larger hats than these little things women wear today."

Mrs. Sunday said she has known Billy Graham for a number of years, and that he "has adopted several of Mr. Sunday's ideas. One of them is to conduct separate meetings for men and women."

Since Billy Sunday's death 15 years ago, Mrs. Sunday has travelled about the country conducting memorial services and raising money for Gospel Missions. She also visited the Virginia Asher Councils, nation-wide organizations started as a result of Billy Sunday's meetings.

City Proven Right Government Wrong

CORVALLIS, Ore.—(INS)—The city of Corvallis is right and the federal government is wrong—$10,724.43 worth to be exact.

The saving came when the city disputed a claim that it owed the Public Housing Adminisration $7,828.48 for a government housing project.

City fathers replied that the government owed the city $6,948.93 in lieu of taxes and hired an auditor to prove their point.

The auditor found that the city did not owe any money but that the government still owed the city $2,895.95.

One year after the dispute arose the government admitted it was in error and the city was correct.

Drivers License Applicants Rise

HARRISBURG — Nearly 30,000 more examinations of applicants for automobile operators' licenses were conducted during the first eight months of 1950 than in the same period of 1949, according to an announcement from state police headquarters.

Of the 249,672 applicants for licenses appearing for examination from January through August in 1950, there were 86,643 failures or approximately 34 per cent, as compared with 73,114 in the same eight-month period of 1949 when 219,727 applicants were examined by state policemen, or approximately 33 per cent.

The first woman newspaper comic-character artist on an American newspaper was Rose O'Neill, who drew the Kewpies in 1903.

1951 Farm Show Is Centennial Of First State Fair

HARRISBURG—When the 35th annual Pennsylvania Farm Show is held here next January 8-12 it will mark the 100th anniversary of the first state fair that was to launch a successful series of such events to advance agriculture in the Keystone state.

The fair was held in Harrisburg October 29-31, 1851, and the feature continued for almost 50 years in various cities of the state. Efforts had been made about 25 years earlier to establish a state fair in the eastern part of the state but they were localized and failed after the third year. Various local agricultural shows and a Pennsylvania Horticultural society show decided in 1850 that a big state fair should be organized, State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst reports.

Gigantic Project Moves Mountains

WALLA WALLA, Wash.—(INS)—Mountains are being moved and towns shifted in a gigantic $34 million face-lifting operation that is changing the map of southwestern Washington and northeastern Washington.

Miles of railroads, highways and utility lines are being shifted out of the vast area that will be the reservoir behind the $250 million McNary dam on the Columbia.

Some 84 miles of railroads will be relocated or raised and 55 miles of highways rebuilt. Three major railroad bridges will be altered and an important highway bridge will be rebuilt and another replaced.

The federal government is in the middle of purchasing 2,600 pieces of property, including two towns, for relocation and other purposes.

The small community of Hover, Wash., already has disappeared, and soon Wallula, the second oldest town in Washington and a busy railroad center, will be under 15 feet when the reservoir starts to fill in 1953.

Wallula will be located north of the present town-site and is expected to become a recreational center by the soon-to-be-created lake.

Slightly more than three per cent of Americans show a complete lack of interest in music, according to a survey.

Methodist Union Dinner Attracts 300 To Epworth

Wilkinsburg Pastor Heard During Annual Meeting Wednesday

Three hundred Methodists of New Castle and Lawrence County heard a challenging address Wednesday evening at Epworth Methodist church, given by Dr. Roy E. Manne, pastor of the Wilkinsburg Methodist church. The occasion was the annual Methodist Union dinner when members of that organization assembled for a fellowship and business session.

Dr. A. C. Schultz, new pastor of the First Methodist church, was called upon for the invocation after which the sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies of Epworth church. Mrs. Kenneth Gibson, choir director of Mahoning church was presented and led in the singing of a number of the old Gospel songs. Mrs. Paul Aley of the Savanah church presided at the piano.

Pastors Introduced

Dr. Thomas Morris, Grove City district superintendent, who presided, introduced the Epworth choir which pleased with two selections, "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "We Adore Thee." New Methodist pastors were introduced by Dr. Morris as follows: Dr. A. C. Schultz, First Methodist; Rev. Harold Gaiser, East Brook; Rev. Floyd Duncan, Croton; Rev. O. G. Shindledecker, Mahoning; Rev. Elmer R. Nunemaker, of Pulaski and King's Chapel.

Robert L. Meermans, president of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Union, introduced the members of the board, including: Norman Clark, John Emery, Jess Kerr, William Alexander, J. W. Kegarise, H. M. McQuiston, Mrs. C. F. Flannery, Leonard Blasdell, and Miss Emma Pearl. Mrs. J. F. Rentz was called upon for brief remarks in which she spoke fittingly in behalf of Rev. and Mrs. Harry Johnson of the Edenburg Methodist church who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Dr. Manne Speaks

Dr. Morris called upon Dr. Manne for the address of the evening with the visiting minister using as the basis for his well-chosen remarks, the need for greater cooperation among the churches of Methodism, as well as among the Protestant churches in general. The speaker, chose three childhood games, "I—Spy," "Stage Coach" and "Dominoes" as illustrations for his address. From each of the games, he drew the application that to get along well together, there must be genuine cooperation and likewise in the church, there must be cooperation to attain Christian unity. Dr. Manne held his audience in rapt attention throughout his well-received address.

Leonard Blasdell of the Mahoning church was responsible for the sale of dinner tickets and general planting of the highly successful dinner event.

Boy On Bicycle In Collision With Auto

When he lost control of the bicycle he was riding, Trevor Johns aged 12 of 26½ West Washington street, rode his bicycle against the car of Edward C. Davies, 414 Edgewood avenue, at 6:15 p.m. yesterday.

The accident occurred at North Jefferson and Falls street.

He was taken to the New Castle hospital in an ambulance but was later discharged. He complained of pain in his angle.

GAINS ARE MADE ALL ALONG FRONT

other American troops reached a point two and a half miles above the Ungi river and only 25 miles south of the upper Yalu. The Americans ran into fire from Red tanks and heavy guns but maintained their northward advance.

South Korean unions both in the central and the for northeast coastal sector remained under severe pressure by powerful enemy troops which were being battered by American planes and warships.

Taking advantage of a slight break in the cold wave that boosted temperatures from the zero to the freezing level, UN forces in the northwest resumed their limited offensive toward hubs controlling the main roads to Manchuria.

Australian and British troops of the 27th Commonwealth Brigade captured the enemy-abandoned road center of Pakchon and pushed north another 2,000 yards to the confluence of the Taeryong and Kyerjichon rivers.

They then sent patrols thrusting 3,000 yards farther north. Their steady advance encountered no opposition except from some 200 Red soldiers who had fled north of Pakchon from positions burned out by American jellied gasoline bombs.

Gain Three Miles

The British-Australian gains, reported at 5:59 P.M. in a front dispatch by International News Service War Correspondent Bernard Kaplan, added up to nearly three miles.

On the inland wing of the Chongchon bridgehead, U. S. First Cavalry Division troops pressed forward nearly two and a half miles along their entire sector Thursday after getting heavy Red artillery and mortar fire through Wednesday night.

First Cavalry patrols entered the key road center of Yongbyon, 12 miles northeast of Pakchon. The latter city, occupied by the British Commonwealth Brigade, was found to have been half destroyed in a battle which had swirled in and around it for 10 days.

Pakchon lies seven miles north-northwest of Anju where the only serviceable brigade spanning the Chongchon crosses the river northward.

Increased Red Resistance

Eighteen miles west of Pakchon is the big rail-highway junction city of Chongju where the principal western route to Manchuria's Yalu river frontier branches off into two railroads and paralleling highways.

Word of increased Red resistance along the 10th Corps front in northeast Korea came from INS War Correspondent John Rich in a field dispatch at 5:40 p.m. Thursday (3:40 a.m. EST).

Rich said enemy forces were even attempting amphibious attacks with small boat landings on the eastern beaches below Chongjin that struck at the hard-pressed South Korean Capitol Division and menaced the flank of the U.S. Seventh Division.

Reds Fight Back

The Seventh Division, closest of all the UN forces to the Manchurian border, ran into Communist troops that fought back Thursday with tanks, artillery and mortars.

But the Seventh's GIs, battling in zero or near zero temperatures over icy terrain, expanded their Ungi bridgehead, pounding up to one point 4,000 yards, or nearly two and a half miles, north of the river.

In that area, dotted with prized hydroelectric reservoirs and plants, the Americans were only about 25 air miles south of the nearest portion of interior Korea's northern Yalu boundary adjoining China's Manchuria.

The U. S. Army division was attacking Chinese and Korean Communist troops well-entrenched on rugged heights.

New Kiwanis Club Is Formed

Lawrence County Kiwanis clubs took a big part in the induction ceremonies of the Richland Township Kiwanis club at Bakerstown Monday evening, when the club received its charter.

The New Castle club was referred to as the great-grandfather of the club, inasmuch as it had sponsored the Butler club, which in turn sponsored the Mars club, sponsorers of the new group.

The New Castle club presented the new club with its banner, New Wilmington provided the new secretary's pin; the Lower Beaver Valley club, the treasurer's pin; Ellwood City and Butler clubs presented the secretary's kit; Beaver Falls, an American flag; West Middlesex, a Canadian flag, and Mars, the bell and gavel.

There were ten from New Castle in attendance, the program being preceded by a nice dinner in the Bakerstown Presbyterian church.

Tax Facts Are Outlined By Mayor Haven

It costs a taxpayer slightly less than 22 cents a day to receive municipal benefits, providing he owns a home valued at $4,000 and receives a salary of $4,000 annually, according to Mayor John F. Haven, who issued a financial statement to the public today.

The mayor's statement follows:

"The total assessed valuation of all real estate in the city is approximately $52,000,000, and based on a levy of 10 mills, the revenue received is $520,000.

"A survey shows, that the city has approximately 13,000 property-owners in the city, and a fair average for property assessment is $4,000, and with a levy of 10 mills the property owner would pay $40.

"Multiply the $4,000 by the 13,000 property-owners in the city and you will find the answer is $52,000,000, the total valuation of property.

Consider Wage Tax

"Now consider the wage tax.

"On an earned income of $4,000 per year you pay a total of $40 per year.

"Divide 365 days of the year into the $40 and that will amount to 11 cents per day—which is less than the amount paid for a gallon of gasoline or a package of cigarettes.

"That is the cost paid for such services as—

"Police protection, 24 hours a day;

"Fire protection, 24 hours a day;

"Collection of garbage, sanitary sewer, storm sewers, disposal plant, repair to city streets, paved and unpaved; street lighting, traffic lights, sanitary inspections and other municipal services.

'I ask, is 22 cents a day too much for all the services rendered?"

Mrs. Orland Covert Dies At Canton, O.

Mrs. Orland H. Covert, nee Myrtle Hassler, aged 43 years, Canton, O., died Wednesday at 11 p.m. in the Aultman hospital, Canton, according to a message received by her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lucy Covert, Edenburg.

Survivors are: her husband, who is a former New Castle resident; her mother, Mrs. Amelia Hassler, Canton; a daughter, Darlene, at home, two brothers and two sisters.

Friends may call at the late home, 815 Rowland avenue, N.E., Canton, until Saturday morning, when the body will be removed to a Canton funeral home, where services will be conducted Saturday at 1 p. m.

FINGERNAIL TEST

KENT, O.—Householders should use the "fingernail test" to distinguish between various kinds of fire wood, advises Martin L. Davey, Jr., tree expert. The highest heat value is reflected when the wood cannot be dented with the fingernail, meaning it is hard and heavy. Moderate heat is predictable when wood can be lightly dented. Light and soft wood, not particularly good in last heat value, dents easily.

Big Jim Konstanty, baseball's No. 1 relief pitcher, is often "Greek" to opposing batsmen of the Phillies but he denies flatly that he is of Hella descent.

Florida Man Slays His Wife And Companion

PALATKA, Fla., Nov. 16.—(INS)—A Jacksonville, Fla., businessman who found his wife and her married sweetheart in a nude embrace in an isolated cabin and blew their heads off with a shotgun was free on his own recognizance today pending a coroner's investigation.

Joel P. McRae, member of a prominent Jacksonville family staggered to the front porch of the cabin after the shooting yesterday, muttered "it's all over" and collapsed of a heart attack.

A coroner's jury, meeting a few hours later under huge, moss-hung oaks near the cabin on the shores of Gin House lake, a duck-hunting center, viewed the bodies of McRae's socialite wife, Marie, 33, and R. D. Sutton, a Jacksonville city commissioner, and adjourned for 10 days without reaching a verdict.

Free On Own Recognizance

County judge and coroner C. S. Greene said he ordered the postponement and freed McRae on his own recognizance "to give everything a chance to simmer down".

Putnam county sheriff W. J Revels said the husband's blast killed both his wife and Sutton, a bemedalled hero of World War II and prospective candidate for Jacksonville mayor, because the couple was "so close together".

He said McRae, using a 12-gauge shotgun loaded with buckshot, fired a second time before stalking out.

McRae's brother, Walter, said the trucking firm president learned yesterday morning that his wife, who said she was going to a parent-teachers meeting, actually was leaving with Sutton on the 70-mile drive from Jacksonville to the lakeside cabin.

McRae and Walter raced to Palatka, picked up two photographers, J. R. Carter and Albert Browning, and drove to an abandoned orange grove near the cabin. They arrived before the couple.

Hidden by low-hanging Spanish moss, McRae watched his wife and her 39-year-old lover enter the cabin, waited an hour, then picked up his shotgun and walked in through an unlocked back door.

The brother told the coroner's jury:

"I heard two shots and ran to the cabin. Just then Joel came out and collapsed in the yard. He said 'It's all over now'."

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 16 —(INS)—Santa Claus came early—but none too early for three-year-old Gary Turnbull in Winnipeg.

His parents had a special Christmas tree and party for the boy Monday. Gary died yesterday from cirrhosis of the liver.

Famed Carrier Is En Route Back From Long Korea Action

ABOARD THE U. S. S. VALLEY FORGE AT SEA, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The heroic flattop Valley Forge tilted her bow almost jauntily into leaden 18-foot seas today enroute to a well-earned rest.

Snow fell softly on the famed carrier's huge flight deck, free for the first time in more than four months of the thunder of warplanes taking off and landing.

The Valley Forge took her departure Wednesday from Task Force 7, leaving the war theater, where she had cruised a distance equal to two trips around the world in support of Korean combat operations.

Her supplies of bombs, rockets, ammunition and fuel were virtually exhausted.

Only one-third of the 15,000,000 hay fever sufferers in this country know they are allergic.

Government Enriched Because Of Talkers

MANILA — (INS) — The Philippine government is richer today by more than a million pesos because one party talked too much while the other wouldn't.

The party which talked too much forfeited to the government smuggled gems worth 407,995.21 pesos. Furthermore, for attempting to smuggle the gems into the country these three persons involved in it were given stiff prison terms.

Investigation of the smuggling attempt was ordered after one of the smugglers reportedly bragged that Malacanan Palace officials (presidential residence) were receiving "outs", predicting the eventual quashing of the smuggling case.

The party which wouldn't talk gave up to the government U. S. Treasury warrant notes in the amount of 98,277.34 pesos.

The warrant notes and money orders, made out to Filipino war beneficiaries, were discovered in a compartment of an incoming plane from Hong Kong last September 20, presumably intended for the local dollar black-market.

Coffee Drinking Steadily Rising

NEW YORK. — (INS) — Coffee drinking in the United States during the summer of 1950 increased by eight per cent over the same period in 1949, Theophilo de Andrade, president of the Pan-American Coffee Bureau said today.

Over 18,000 persons were interviewed on their coffee drinking habits in a survey conducted especially for the bureau.

"The survey indicates clearly a trend toward drinking more coffee at all hours of the day and in all portions of the country with the exception of the Mountain and Pacific states, Andrade said.

The largest gains in coffee drinking were registered in the East North Central and West North Central states with increases of 21 and 23 per cent respectively.

Lawrence Council Convenes Friday

Members of the Lawrence County Council of Sportsmen will meet at eight o'clock, Friday night, at the Harbor farm of the Lawrence county Sportsman's Association, according to Secretary . Triple Winner At Stock Show

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16—(INS)—Gene Oates, 18, of Kenton, O., today was a triple winner, including the grand championship, in the Junior Livestock Show in Pittsburgh.

Oates took the breed championships with two entries, a Hereford and a Shorthorn, and his 1195-pound Shorthorn also won the grand championship.

Carl A. Logan, 17, a 4-H Club member of Irwin, Pa., copped the Hereford reserve title and the reserve grand championship, and his entry also placed second to Oates in the Hereford heavy weight class.

Bradley Eisiminged, of Waynesburg, Pa., was awarded the grand championship pen and individual honors for his Southdawn sheep entry.

The judging took place at Herrs Island stock yards in Pittsburgh yesterday. All entries, including 400 beeves and 150 lambs, will be sold at auction this afternoon.

Republican Women Of State Elect New Officers For Year

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women today is headed by Mrs. Helen M. Schluraff, of Erie.

Mrs. Schluraff was installed for her second term during the closing session of the Council's annual convention at Harrisburg.

Her election topped off a meeting during which National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett appealed for party harmony and warned that "weak spots" in the GOP organization must be strengthened if the party is to carry Pennsylvania for the Republican ticket in presidential balloting two years hence.

Other officers installed yesterday were Mrs. Mitchell McCartney, of Beaver Falls, recording secretary; Mrs. H. L. R. Anderson, of Grove City, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Cora Withers, of Camp Hill; and the following vice-presidents: Mrs. Hannahh M. Durham, of Zionsville; Mrs. Caroline Huber, of Haverford; Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, Jr., of Harrisburg; Mrs. Sue Leffler, of Lebanon; Mrs. Edna R. Carroll, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. George R. Hemphill, of Beaver Falls.

Woman In Ambulance Dies After Collision

CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 16—(INS)—An ailing woman died early today when an ambulance rushing her to a hospital collided with a bus in Chester. Two other persons were injured in the crash.

The fatal victim, Mrs. Georganna Gibbs, 67, was pronounced dead at Chester hospital, where she had been enroute when the ambulance collided with a bus bound from Chester to Darby.

Police said the collision occurred at an intersection.

Two others in the ambulance were injured. They were James Watson, 41, the assistant driver, who was treated for shock, and Lillian Gibbs, 33, daughter-in-law of the dead woman, who was treated for injuries to the chest and arms. None of the bus passengers was reported hurt.

Wage And Price Controls Only In General War

—SENATOR BRICKER

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16. — Republican opposition to use of wage and price controls in any situation short of a general war was voiced today by Sen. Bricker of Ohio.

Bricker, who helped write the present Economic Controls Law as a member of the Senate Banking Committee declared that peacetime use of price-wage ceilings would be "almost impossible" and would result in "an unholy mess."

But, the senator added: "Of course, if we get into a general war, we will have to have them."

Should Resist Inflation

The Ohio Senator said he felt the inflationary pressure of the defense program could be resisted successfully by use of credit controls, allocations and priorities, bond sales drives and similar measures.

As other deterrents to inflation, he suggested a general tax increase and severe cutbacks in all government spending not directly connected with defense.

Bricker said he did not think the lame duck session of Congress, slated to meet November 27, should enact the administration-backed tax on the excess profits of corporations. He warned, however, that a general tax increase program should be enacted next year by the new Congress and should include a boost of individual income taxes.

A scheduled administration drive to secure a temporary extension of federal rent controls from the lame duck Congress was promised a cool reception by the Ohioan.

REAL ACHIEVEMENT IN 4-H WORK

Will Arraign Collazo Friday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—(INS)—U. S. Attorney George Morris Fay announced today that Puerto Rican Oscar Collazo will be arranged tomorrow on a murder charge in connection with the attempt assassination of President Truman.

Fay said that the arraignment probably will take place in the court of Federal Judge Edward A. Tamm, where a four-count indictment was returned against Collazo last Friday.

The dapper, swarthy Puerto Rican Nationalist faces the death penalty on two counts of first degree murder for the shooting of White House Guard Leslie Coffelt during the Nov. 1 attempt to kill the president at Blair House.

Bombs Explode In Rome Headquarters Of Political Parties

ROME, Nov. 16. — (INS) — Time bombs exploded in the headquarters of two Italian political parties today, causing considerable damage. No injuries were reported immediately.

One went off in Republican party headquarters and the other in the United Socialist party.

Randolfo Pacciardi, secretary-general of the Republican party, hinted that those responsible were members of the so-called Italian Social movement. Other parties are demanding dissolution of this group on charges that it has Fascist tendencies.

Italian Shipping Is Hit By Strike

U.S. Reinforcements Arrive In Berlin

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The first United States troop reinforcements to bolster American military units in Berlin arrived today in the former German capital.

Installing New Light System

Employes of the Pennsylvania Power company have commenced removal of light standards in Mill and Mercer streets, between South and Falls street to make way for a portion of the new lighting system, as authorized by council some months ago. The poles and lights to be erected will be similar to those now in Washington street.

Small Fire At Radiator Plant

New Castle and Shenango Township firemen were called to the plant of the National Radiator Co., on Cass street, at 10:25 p.m., Wednesday, when a small fire occurred in the wood shop of the plant.

Shenango township firemen, who were first at the scene, had the blaze extinguished in short order, and the services of the New Castle department was not needed.

Bookbinding began with the Christian era.

Police Are Seeking Annoyer Reported In East Side Area

Second report of a man annoying the East Side residents came to light yesterday afternoon, according to police.

Marian Marks, 511 South Ray street, said a man knocked on the Marks residence door. He offered for sale a magazine but she said she was not interested because they already had one. The man asked her to show him the magazine.

He is believed to be the same man who annoyed Mrs. Ernest Adamo of 447 County Line street recently.

Authorities hope to apprehend the man.

Mother Sues To Collect Insurance On Executed Son

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 16—(INS)—The mother of a war veteran executed for murder last January in Rockview penitentiary today sued the U. S. government for his $10,000 national service life insurance.

Counsel for Mrs. Elsie J. Simmons, of Mechanicsburg, testified in federal court at Scranton that the Veterans Administration refused payment of the policy taken out in 1943 by her son, Ray.

Simmons was electrocuted for participation in the hammer slaying of Herbert Humpert on his Adams county farm near Gardners in March, 1947.

In a letter to the mother, the VA reported it would not settle the policy "by reason of the fact that judicial electrocution precludes payments."

Purchasing Agents Hear Address On Petroleum Status

At the monthly dinner meeting of the Purchasing Agents Association of New Castle, held Wednesday evening, in The Castleton, the group was addressed by W. E. Gordon, of Pittsburgh, assistant district manager of the Gulf Oil Company, a former local man.

Mr. Gordon discussed the petroleum situation, particularly in reference to the present hostilities, and the future outlook. He stated that many new snythetic materials are being discovered which will replace petroleum, and compared developments of the past 20 or 25 years, with materials which were not then available.

Dogs Follow Students To McGill School

This was the warning of Chief of Police Robert D. Hanna to Arthur McGill school students today.

He said a dog nuisance exists in that district because dogs follow "masters" to school and wait for them to be dismissed.

"If the situation continues, I'll have to send the dog catcher to the school to take the dogs in custody," the chief added.

Man Is Beaten During Hold-Up

David Kirkwood, age 61, of R D. 2 is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering from a possible fracture of the skull, cerebral concussion, possible fracture of ribs and laceration of the right eyebrow, having been beaten and robbed of a diamond stickpin and tie clasp about midnight last night.

The attack occurred in the rear of the Fountain Inn.

A guest notified the clerk of the Inn that a man was lying there. The clerk notified authorities and Mr. Kirkwood was taken to the hospital.

Forty Hour Devotions At St. Vitus Church

Forty hour devotions at St. Vitus church will start Friday morning. The solemn high mass at 9 o'clock will open the devotions with the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita pastor of the church, will be the celebrant of the mass.

The Eucharistic procession will be held with the altar boys and clergy participating. Exposition will be held during the entire day and devouts are expected to visit the clergy to offer prayers. Among other intentions, prayers for general peace will be offered.

At 7:30 p.m., on Friday, evening services will be held. A sermon in Italian will be delivered.

Saturday morning exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Holy Mass will take place. All day adoration will follow. The evening services will be at 7:30 p.m., followed by a sermon in English.

On Sunday morning, the regular masses will be offered. The solemn closing of the forty hours will be at 7:30 p.m. The Eucharistic procession with clergy, altar boys and church societies will be elaborate and beautiful and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be held. The sermon to be delivered will be in English.

Confessions will be heard Friday morning from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. and every evening during the forty hours, before, during and after services.

Assisting Father DeMita will be Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, and Rev. Fr. Raymond Heintz. The altars are beautifully decorated with fall mums, palms and ferns. As usual the forty hours devotions draws a capacity attendance. Due to the serious conditions of strife in the world today, a large attendance is expected to attend and offer prayer for peace throughout the world. Father DeMita as pasor urges all to attend the forty hours and take part in the services.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Levine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levine, of Beckley, W. Va., formerly of New Castle, announce the birth of a daughter, Natelie Jo. Mr. Levine is the grandson of Mrs. Jacob Levine, 418 Neshannock avenue.

Fox Eludes Pursuers At Yankee Stadium

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—"Tally Ho" has replaced "Play Ball" today in New York's Yankee stadium where maintenance men and watchmen have been chasing a fox for more than a month.

The fox first showed up on October 13 after a truck pulled into the Bronx Bombers ball park with football equipment from West Point. Squads of park employes and several agents of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals quickly set out to catch him but to no avail.

Since then succulently baited traps have been laid throughout the park but the fox has avoided them, preferring to devour the fat pigeons which inhabit the stadium.

In the past month three stadium cats have disappeared—probably into the stomach of the fox.

Contrast In State Voting

Election Statistics Show Interesting Phase; News Of State

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16—A comparison of election statistics for 1946 and 1950 shows a striking contrast in the Republican races for governor and U. S. senator... Four years ago, when James M. Duff ran for governor, he pulled ahead of the candidate for the U. S. senate, Edward Martin, in nine counties including two of the four whic hthe GOP lost to Democrats. ...This year, GOP gubernatorial candidate John S. Fine ran ahead of Duff, who won the senate seat of Democrat Francis J. Myers, in 35 of the 49 counties which the GOP carried as well as in seven of the 16 which were won by Democrats...Two other counties split. ...Four years ago, the GOP carried Philadelphia by more than 108,000 votes while this year Democrats won the county by approximately 63,000 ballots...Similarly Republicans were victorious in Duff's own Allegheny county by about 56,000 votes in 1946 while this year Democrats won by more than 16,000.

November 27, will be the last day for return boards to file election results with Secretary of the Commonwealth Gene D. Smith... The first day to register will be December 8...The last day for candidates to file general election expense accounts with the elections bureau at the state capitol will be December 7...Courts of quarter sessions may be petitioned for audits of contested accounts up to December 27...The final reports from the major political parties are expected to show fall campaign expenditures approximating the $1,700,000 spent in the primary of which all but about $200,000 was laid out by Republicans of two factions.

The State Milk Control Commission, which has been in hot water off and on during its 17 years of existence, is quietly getting ready for any new attempts which may be made in the General Assembly to rip it out of the commonwealth's setup...Actually, the planned economy engineered in the milk industry by the MCC runs counter to the free enterprise demands among Republicans...It is almost certain some legislatnon will be introduced during the 1951 session to abolish the commission or curtail its activities...Whether it will bear the administration stamp of approval is a matter to be decided by John S. Fine after he is inducted into the governor's office in January...The MCC is particularly sensitive to complaints that it is dominated by distributors... In a circular distributed among its members by the Pennsylvania Association of Milk Dealers, Vice-President Benjamin G. Eynon wrote: "If ever any industry is free of a dominating influence with a regulatory agency it will be found in the milk distributors' relationship with the Milk Control Commission. The distributors have exerted no influence whatsoever on the commission and the results appearing in the promulgated orders so dictate."...Fine is expected to have the point state government commission investigate the whole milk regulation setup "for the purpose of making corrective recommendations to the General Assembly."

The Pennsylvania Manual discloses that Governor Duff was the fourth man in Pennsylvania history to be elevated from the governor's office to the U. S. senate... The others were William Findlay in 1821, William Bigler in 1854 and Edward Martin in 1947...So far, Martin has been the only governor to resign a few weeks before the end of his term to go to Washington for the opening of congress so as not to lose any seniority... U. S. senator-elect James H. Duff has said he will stay on the job until his terms ends January 16.

Cleveland Man Cromwell Heir?

CLEVELAND, (INS)—If Oliver Cromwell gets a land grant or an old castle from the British government, he can say it all started with an etching.

The rarely-seen etching is hanging in the Cleveland Public Library where Cromwell directs book exhibits in the basement. The picture shows the 17th century Oliver Cromwell who beheaded Charles I in 1649.

"Why he could have been my twin brother," said the Cleveland Cromwell while looking at the etching. "The same nose as mine, the same facial features and the same look in the eye."

Besides, didn't his history classmates call the local Cromwell "Your Noseship," a popular nickname for the Cromwell in the high school textbooks?

Oliver doesn't have definite proof he is a direct descendant of the lord protector of England, but he has sent a letter of inquiry to the British government to see if he is entitled to any property, provided he is a descendant.

Mud on the ocean floor may be 9,000 feet thick in places, a survey shows.

LITTLE BEAVER

Mr. and Mrs. Elie Byler were callers at New Wilmington over the week-end.

Each Thursday afternoon, immediately following the close of school, opportunity is afforded boys and girls of the community to attend a meeting for Bible instruction. Under the auspices of the "Children for Christ" meeting held in the basement of the Bible Presbyterian church.

Tuesday the Daughters of Lydia Missionary society, of the Bible Presbyterian church, held its regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Hazel Hartford, Mrs. Willard Gibson, of Darlington, the leader, gave an able presentation of the missionary field in Korea. The meeting was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Paul Moore, the president, presided.

The Young Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Anderson Thursday night.

The Junior Miss class of the Presbyterian church, and their teacher, Mrs. Wilber Patterson, enjoyed a masquerade party last Wednesday night at the home of Ann and Irene Devin. After an enjoyable evening, the girls, assisted by their mother, served a delicious lunch.

Raymond Kelchner and Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Strause of Muncy spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Rourke and were accompanied home by Mrs. Kelchner who had spent the past two weeks as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. O'Rourke.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Young and family of Beaver Falls, and Mrs. Clem S. Young and children of Koppel were guests Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Aultz and family of Jeannette were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lindner and Mrs. Mildred Lindner of Enon.

Mrs. H. C. Dudas and daughter, Patricia, were callers at Beaver Falls Friday.

Mrs. George Imboden entertained at a birthday dinner party complimentary to her husband and her granddaughter, Miss Rosalie Conti. Games were the pastime. The honorees received a number of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Duff of Chagrin Falls, O., and Mrs. Florence Duff of Darlington visited with Miss Anna McAnlis Saturday at Enon Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young were callers at Petersburg, O., Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harle Witherspoon of Sewickley spent the week end at their summer home here.

Miss Evalin Freed and Miss Arline Young of Koppel called at the home of the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Young, Sunday.

Rev. William Smith of the L.P. church spent several days last week in the Cincinnati area. November 1, he participated in the installation of the Rev. Francis Hill at Maple Grove, and the following night he engaged in a similar service for the Rev. William B. Cordes at Hamilton, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin McMorran, son, Bobby, of Beaver Falls, R. D. 1, visited with their parents here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goschkie and daughter, Anna, were callers at Cleveland, O., Monday.

Miss Maud Clayton and Miss Alice Swartz of Pittsburgh visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marty Clayton of Enon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kahl of Pittsburgh spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Imboden.

NEW RAIL SECTION

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15. — (INS)—The Pennsylvania Railroad officially opened the new streamlined section of its Panhandle division today between Steubenville and Dennison, O.

The event heralded the unrestricted flow for the first time of freight in the biggest box cars and in oversize open loads over the shortest rail route between the East and the Mississippi river.

The new unrestricted route and elimination of time required to screen big cars from through trains for Detroit will save at least 168,000 car days annually, officials said.

WHAT! Only a quart of oil? The Roxbilts don't scrimp young man—put in 5 gallons!

Five gallons is a lot of oil, Mrs. Roxbilt. Frankly, we'd rather sell that surplus to lots of folks, we know who sure as shootin' are going to burn out a bearing for the lack of it.

Court Restraining Prevents Start Of Color Television

CHICAGO, Nov. 16—(INS)—A temporary restraining order preventing the Columbia Broadcasting System from beginning color television transmission November 20 is scheduled to be signed today in a three-judge Chicago Federal Court.

The order was issued yesterday by Judges J. Earl Major, Phillip L. Sullivan, and Walter Labuy. However, Judge Samuel Rosenman, representing CBS, objected to the wording of the order and asked that the signing be delayed until today.

Court attaches said Rosenman will try to chance the wording so that the ruling can be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court. They explained that under present circumstances the High Court would not be likely to review the order since the case still is under consideration by a lower tribunal.

Before the order was handed down, Rosenman declared that in the event of a ruling unfavorable to CBS, he would take the matter to the Supreme Court.

Anti-Picketing Injunctions Are Sought In Strike

NEW YORK, Nov. 16—(INS)—The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. sought additional anti-picketing injunctions today and the CIO-Communications Workers of America charged that the courts are being "turned into strike-breaking agencies."

Federal mediators prepared to meet again today with representatives for both sides in an effort to settle the strike of 33,000 telephone installers and equipment workers.

Joseph A. Beirne, union president, said the company has obtained statewide injunctions in Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, and Virginia and is seeking them in Kentucky and New Jersey. Injunctions also have been obtained in a number of cities.

Telephone service was again reported normal in the 43 states where the strike is in effect.

The union is reportedly asking a 15 cents an hour increase and the company has offered 11½ cents.

McBride Post To Dance Saturday

Members of the Cpl. Harry L. McBride Post, No. 522, V.F.W., met in the post rooms on West Grant street, Wednesday evening, when several new members were inducted into the post, and plans were made for future activities.

It was arranged ot have the next dance for members and their ladies on Saturday evening, November 18, in the post ball room, from 9 to 12.

The New Castle Vets Council will be entertained by McBride Post on December 4. The Tri-County Council will also meet in the McBride Post home on December 14.

Temple Israel To Hear Message

Congregation members of Temple Israel will hear a message from the Convention of Union of American Hebrew congregation, held in Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Iwan J. Gruen, rabbi of Temple Israel, and Abe Levine, president of Temple Israel will deliver the message at the Sabbath Services, Friday evening, at 8 p.m., at Temple Israel.

Dr. Gruen and Mr. Levine attended the 41st biennial convention in Cleveland, Ohio., as delegates recently. They will speak about the convention Friday evening.

Symphony Features Adrian Fisher As Guest Soloist

The opening concert of the third season of the New Castle Symphony orchestra, with Anthony Casbero conducting, will be given at the Cathedral on Wednesday evening, November 22 at 8:30 o'clock.

Adrian Fisher, concert pianist, will be the soloist and will play the "Concertstucke in F Minor" by Weber with the orchestra. Miss Fisher has appeared as soloist with the San Francisco Symphony orchestra and the Chautauqua Symphony and has been heard in recitals throughout the east. She was born in New Castle and attended elementary and high school here. A graduate of the Institute of Musical Art and the Julliard Graduate school in New York, Miss Fisher has studied with such eminent teachers as Robert Casadesus, the French virtuoso; Ernest Hutcheson, Rudolph Ganz, Lee Pattison and Arthur Loesser.

The coming concert will have considerable local interest as Miss Fisher will be the first soloist to appear with the New Castle Symphony orchestra. The concert will also afford the citizens of the community an opportunity to pay tribute not only to Miss Fisher but to Mr. Casbero and the orchestra as well in supplying our community with attractive programs of symphonic music.

Egypt Demanding Total Evacuation Of British Troops

CAIRO, Nov. 16—(INS)—Egypt's King Farouk announced today that his government is demanding "total and immediate" evacuation of British troops from Egyptian soil and unification of the Sudan under the Egyptian crown.

The announcement came in the king's speech to parliament which was read by Premier Mustapha El Nahas Pasha.

It served notice that Egypt will demand cancellation of the Anglo-Egyptian treaty.

Under the Anglo-Egyptian treaty of 1936 the Sudan has been administered by a governor general on behalf of both Britain and Egypt.

Patrolman Named Captain At Sharon

SHARON, Nov. 16—Despite protests of Mayor Myron W. Jones and Police Chief William E. Stuart, Patrolman Thomas Conti has been promoted by City Council to the rank of captain. A majority vote of council gave Conti the promotion.

Chief Stuart had recommended the promotion of Detective Howard Maxwell to the job. The action of council closed the battling of several weeks to fill the position since the retirement of Captain Bert Rankin. Mayor Jones stated that the move would result in disorganization of the police force.

Deserter Declares Russia In Battle Against Starvation

BERLIN, Nov. 16 — (INS) — A Soviet Army Lieutenant who deserted and fled to the British zone said today that all life in Russia is "an unending fight against starvation."

The officer, 24-year-old Alexander Bystrov, whose return the Soviets are demanding in return for a British private and a soldier held in the Russian zone, said that Russia's chief industries now are manned by slave labor.

He said the death rate of slave laborers in his own home town is so high that a five-man detail is posted permanently at the local cemeteries to collect the bodies of men who die at work. He said that these are thrown naked into mass graves.

Bystrov said he deserted after he compared living conditions outside Russia with the "utter misery and poverty" of his homeland.

MUST ALL DINNER CHINA MATCH

Question: Must every piece of china in an entire dinner set be of matching design?

Answer: Heretofore, sets of china had to be of matching design but present fashion is more lenient allowing place plates, salad and dessert plates and after dinner (demitasse. coffee cups to be of designs different from the other pieces of the set used with them. Of course, if you prefer, these may be all of the same design.

Question: What do you think of buying chintz draperies and bedspread to match? Are they in good taste?

Answer: These are very attractive, especially in a bedroom having white woodwork and wallpaper with all inconspicuous design. If your paper is of the flowered variety choose a plain color for your bedspread and draperies.

Question: After dessert is finished, where should the spoon be placed?

Question: When should sherbet be eaten—after or with the meat course?

Answer: The sherbet is served along with the main course, with which it is eaten. Use a spoon for this purpose; not your fork. And remember that it is "sherbet"—pronounced SHER-bet and not SHER-bert, as many suppose.

Question: At my wedding which will be very small and quiet, I am having only a maid-of-honor. Should the maid walk alone up the aisle, followed by me on my father's arm? I shall dress as a bride.

Answer: Yes, that is the correct procedure. But why not have two ushers who will lead the procession and make it look more graceful.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Understanding Others

Children aren't so dumb!

Here's an eight-year-old commenting on the behavior of a classmate: "Billy wouldn't act so fresh if Miss Jarmon (his teacher) really liked him." And here's a five-year-old who advises a mother he has met on the train: "You mustn't make your baby eat."

Over and over again one runs into children who show real understanding of the reasons underlying the behavior of other children—and grown-ups, too. We have generally underestimated the ability of our youngsters to understand others and themselves.

In schools and at home, the teacher or parent who acts on the assumption that children can understand will be able to help them build the sort of insight and appreciation of human behavior that will be helpful in their day-by-day living.

So after your two-year-old has thrown a temper tantrum, it isn't a bad idea to talk over with older children in the family possible reasons for their little brother's upset.

And even more important, if you've been on the short-tempered side, an explanation that lets them in on the fact that you were worried about something and that this caused you to be upset, will help in developing understanding of why people act like human beings.

THICKEST SEAMS

Salami High Note With Musicians

NEW YORK, (INS)—No matter how thin you slice it, it's still bologna, only in this case it's salami between thick wedges of pumpernickel.

That's the word from H. Arthur Brown, conductor of the Tulsa Philharmonic who has just returned from Europe where he made a number of recordings with the Vienna Symphony Society Orchestra.

Everyone in Vienna, from the age of six to sixty, carries a briefcase and he wondered what was in them. He found out at his first orchestra rehearsal. Every time a musician had a two-bar rest, he dived into his briefcase and came up with a salami sandwich.

During a rhearsal, it was a common sight to see the bass violin player fiddling away while his hunk of sandwich was wedged in his mouth, waiting his "rest" when he could eat it properly.

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Sloan Simpson O'Dwyer—ex-model wife of ex-New York Mayor William O'Dwyer—started a fur fashion trend today.

Before leaving for her new domestic post as wife of the U. S. Ambassador to Mexico, Sloan was presented with a "take-your-pick-of-our-stock" gift from the Associated Fur Manufacturers.

Instead of picking mink, Ermine or sable, she chose Alaskan seal!

H. Irving Arnheimer, spokesman for the association, said: "This might reflect a trend among smart women. Mrs. O'Dwyer is not a lavish dresser, but her taste is excellent.

"It means that sealskin might be the number one high-fashion fur for 1951, over the regal favorite of the decade—mink."

Sloan said that it was her own "personal choice" over modish mink. As for styling of the seal, she requested a fitted coat with a double row of buttons, deep slash pockets and long sleeves with small, flared cuffs.

Bessemer Legion Auxiliary Meets

Membership is the key word in the American Legion auxiliary during the month of November and it was very much in the limelight at the meeting of the Earl J. Watt Unit 638 of Bessemer and surrounding community Monday evening.

Already one hundred and fifteen women have enrolled in the unit for the year 1951.

Now, when service to America is so vitally needed, when so many women of veterans families are seeking ways to do their part, the American Legion auxiliary offers them an organized, experienced group which they can join.

BOSTON—To protect ships off American shores, the coast guard maintains voer 50,000 aids to navigation, including 500 lighthouses, plus lightships, buoys, radio beacons and fog signals.

Meeting Today On Settlement Of Newspapers Strike

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Publishers of Pittsburgh's three idle newspapers are scheduled to meet today with officers of 10 newspaper unions to work out "conditions" for returning to work.

The 10 unions, including the CIO Newspaper Guild of editorial and office workers, figured in the city's 45 day newspaper strike when members were forced out of work by the strike of AFL mailers.

The publishers and the mailers, as well as the AFL Teamsters Union, have come to terms on new contracts. A general membership meeting of the guild last night voted to leave the final decision in the hands of the local's executive committee.

Results of membership meeting of the nine other unions involved were not announced, but they were believed to have taken the same action as the guild.

Shortages Force Some Layoffs At Ford Motor Plant

DETROIT, Nov. 16.—(INS)—About 50,000 Ford Rouge workers stayed home today for the first of a series of layoffs brought on by steel and parts shortages.

The workers will be idle today, tomorrow and will be told to stay home again next Wednesday and November 30 and December 1.

Del S. Harder, vice-president in charge of manufacturing, announced the five days of layoffs resulted from slowdowns in the Rouge rolling mills and other parts and material shortages.

Boston Celtics Trim Capitols

Cooper Stars Mikan Gets 28

(By International News Service)

The Boston Celtics are giving the boys in the National Basketball Association a rough time this season after being pushed around for several seasons.

They rolled up their fifth straight win last night at the expense of the Washington Capitols, 79 to 74, and moved into the third spot in the eastern division.

Chuck Cooper was the chief factor in Boston's triumph. The ex-Duquesne star scored 15 points, four of them in the closing minutes of the game, to lead the Celtics in the scoring department.

Mikan Scores 28

Minneapolis edged Syracuse in an overtime thriller, 72 to 71.

As usual, George Mikan led both teams in scoring, the big fellow tallying with 28 points before fouling out in the last quarter.

The Fort Wayne Pistons fought back a battling Rochester quintet and topped the Royals, 89 to 85.

Mohawks Battle Ramblers Tonight

(By International News Service)

The Cincinnati Mohawks' hopes of shattering a first place tie with the Cleveland Barons in the American Hockey League's western division rest with the New Haven Ramblers tonight.

A victory over last place New Haven of the league's eastern division would pull the Mohawks a full game ahead of the Barons.

King Clancy's Mohawks had to put on the pressure last night to tie the Buffalo Bisons, 4-4, in a game that went overtime.

Hornets Win

St. Louis plays Providence and Springfield goes to Indianapolis in the only other AHL games tonight.

Penguins-Mounties To Battle Tonight

This game will see four seniors in Penguin uniform for the last time. Bill Watson, Wally Angelo, Harry Davis and Dick Hannis will all be concluding their collegiate careers.

Buffalo Offers Boudreau Job

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 16 — (INS)—A Minor League club official will offer Lou Boudreau, ousted Cleveland Indians manager, a player's salary of $30,000 a year.

Leo Miller, manager of the Buffalo club of the International League, said he was trying to contact the ex-Indians chieftain to make the offer. Boudreau started his baseball career in Buffalo.

BISONS VS. GROVERS

Having been soundly defeated at the hands of a superior Geneva aggregation 41-0, the football team of Bethany College will attempt to bring its record to two victories next Saturday against Grove City in the Bisons last contest of the 1950 season.

Purdue's football teams have scored one or more touchdowns in eleven straight games.

Branch Rickey Will Get First Choice Of Players

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16.—(INS)—What may be baseball's biggest draft in years takes place in Cincinnati today. There are 5,668 Minor League players in the selection pool.

Only 21 players were drafted by Major League clubs last year but four possibilities forecast a greater draft of talent this time:

1. The bonus rule appears destined for repeal and some clubs may now be willing to invest the $10,000 triple-A draft price in a player who would be worth twice that much after two or three years of Minor League experience. The bonus rule required that such a player be brought up to the Major Leagues in one year or be subject to draft.

2. There are 238 of these so-called bonus babies among those eligible for draft.

3. The triple-A draft price may be hiked from $10,000 to $25,000 next year.

4. Certain clubs have to insure themselves against possible military draft losses.

Rickey First Draw

First choice in the draft goes to Branch Rickey of the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was general manager of Brooklyn last year and still has a knowledge of Dodger Minor League players. One of the Brooklyn farmhands, consequently, is likely to be wearing a Pirate uniform next year.

Price of players on the draft list ranges from $2,000 for class D talent to $10,000 for those in the triple-A.

The $975,000 baseball received for selling its television and radio rights for the world series also is on the business agenda. The money is expected to go into a players' pension fund.

Bagnell Will Ask $10,000 To Sign Pro Grid Papers

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 16. — (INS)—A pro football career is in the cards today for Penn's Halfback Captain Francis (Red) Bagnell, providing the Red and Blue ace can play for pay of at least $10,000 annually.

Bagnell, who has set three national intercollegiate records this season, seriously doubts if he would "be able to make the grade" as a pro.

But he declared he "might make a go of it as a passing T-quarterback."

Bagnell added, however, that "it would have to be worth my while—no less than $10,000 a year."

"And who's paying that kind of money these days?" he asked.

The Penn passing star said that "nobody has come around with any offers—yet."

SPORT SHORTS

Carasquel, the well-known Venezuelan, undoubtedly was the second best shortstop in his league—second only to Phil Rizzuto, of the New York Yankees, who won the most valuable player award, not to be confused with the rookie of the year award for which Carasquel ran third.

The fantastic shadow of a war to end everything already is encroaching well beyond the outer edges of the sport orbit and baseball is beginning to react accordingly. It still thinks there's no doubt about it—Youth will be served, all right. Only this time, it'll be mostly in a mess-tin.

There could be no doubt as to identity of the Rookie of the year for 1950 in the American League. Walter Dropo, the Boston Red Sox first sacker, was it, and is so designated officially by the Baseball Writers Association.

For a Rookie, Walt Dropo was a mighty powerful lad, and in preseason prognostications for 1951 will figure prominently in the way the experts size up the teams to make the Red Sox favorites again.

Keeping in Trim

EZZARD CHARLES, following Joe Louis as a fighting champion, goes to work in a Cincinnati gym as he preps for his bout with Nick Barone in the Cincinnati Gardens Nov. 28. (International)

East Brook Has Two Lettermen On Floor Squad

Cubs Sign Root As 1951 Coach

CHICAGO, Nov. 16. — (INS) — Charlie Root, once a top National League right-handed pitcher, will return to Wrigley Field, scene of some of his greatest hurling triumphs, in 1951, as a coach.

Root managed the Cubs' Des Moines club of the Western League last season, winding up in third place.

Former big league Catcher Al Todd was appointed to succeed Root at Des Moines.

Todd managed the Cubs' Southern Association farm club, Memphis, in 1950, resigned a month ago in favor of Luke Appling, baseball's long-reigning "Mr. Aches and Pains."

No Women On Next Mat Card

Two T-V Artists In Feature Bout

Fans who trek into The Arena, November 29 night, hopeful of seeing a couple of feminine wrestlers flop each other about the mat will be disappointed because the coming grappling exhibitions will be confined exclusively to men, two of whom are T-V mat performers.

The main bout will find two new faces, Ronnie Etchinson and Jules La Rance in the main bout of 60 minutes time limit, or one fall.

Sammy Berg, alias Mr. Canada of 1947 will take on Billy Venable, who has appeared here previously, in the semi-final.

The tag will find the doughty Ivan Rasputin, alias the Mad Russian and rugged, and villain-like Jack Vansky opposed to Bobby Ford, the debonair boy and Angelo Poffo.

Bombers To Play Butler Cubs On Thanksgiving Day

The Bombers have tried to arrange home games, it is reported, but have been unable to obtain a suitable field. Efforts were made to schedule games at Union township and New Castle school district fields but requests were turned down, team officials report.

Los Angeles Rams Lose Sims To Army

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—The Los Angeles Rams have announced that defensive left halfback George Sims has been inducted into the United States Army.

The Rams meet the New York Yanks Sunday in a battle for first place in the National division of the National Football league.

Philadelphia's last asking price on Brissie was Infielder Johnny Pesky, two pitchers including Ellis Kinder, and Outfielder Tom Wright from the Boston Red Sox.

Army Gridders Start For Coast To Settle Score With Stanford

By HOWARD SIGMAND
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—A team loaded with grid mahem takes off today for an air invasion of sunny California.

Army's undefeated Black Knights make their first trip to the Pacific coast in twenty-one years aboard a T.W.A. Constellation. Their scheduled embarkation at noon marks the first time in history that the football squad has been airborne.

At the other end of the line await the Stanford Indians and the citizens of Palo Alto, Calif., who will get a chance to see on Saturday if it's true what they say about Army.

27 Game Streak

The Cadets have gone 27 games without a loss, but out west Red Blaik's legions are known only by reputation. Saturday it's "for real."

This promised to be quite a game before the season began and even shortly after it got underway. Stanford won four straight and appeared to be a power, but since has lost a couple and been tied once.

The Army coach said that scouts report that T-quarterback Gary Kerkorian is the nearest thing seen to Frankie Albert in ten years.

He is the twentieth ranking passer in the nation and has a great pass catching end in Bill McColl to work with.

The Cadets played Stanford. The score then:

Stanford 34, Army 13.

Thirty-Two Pennsylvania Colleges Call It Quits For 1950 Campaign

By TROY GORDON
(I. N. S. Sports Writer)

This is the last week of the 1950 football season for most of Pennsylvania's college teams.

Thirty-two squads wind up their scheduled activities. Eleven already have finished, leaving less than a dozen with something to do in subsequent weeks.

The Lehigh Engineers are among those playing their last regular game. But the unbeaten Bethlehem aggregation is a likely candidate for a bowl game. If they get by Lafayette at Easton Saturday—and they certainly should, inasmuch as seven out of eight other opponents have—the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex:, may invite them, and other post-season games probably will be interested.

The Lehigh-Lafayette thing is an old grudge battle, and even a heavy favorite—which Lehigh is—doesn't always win. International News Service however, thinks the engineers will end their most-successful season with victory No. Nine by a comfortable margin.

The INS record for last week slipped slightly to 22 right and 10 wrong, a .688 percentage for the week. And for the season, the performance is 179 correct, 71 incorrect—.716.

Unbeaten Teams Vie

The other two unbeaten Keystone teams are safe this week end. Thiel (7-0-0) ended its season last week. Franklin & Marshall (8-0-0) rests for its Thanksgiving Day game with Gettysburg.

Penn (4-2-0), which has lost only to two of the nation's top undefeated powers—California and Army—has another tough assignment. The quakers tangle with Wisconsin at Philadelphia Saturday. The Badgers held potent Ohio State to a 19-14 victory last week.

On a hunch that Wisconsin will be relaxing from its last contest and looking ahead to its next, here's a vote for Penn to surprise the Badgers in a close one.

Michigan State also invades the state, meeting Pitt (1-6-0) at Pittsburgh. The Spartans have lost only one out of eight, and include Notre Dame among their victims. The Irish beat Pitt last week and Michigan State rates the decision, although the edge may not be as large as you think.

Villanova (2-4-0) goes to Boston to clash with Boston College. It won't be easy, but the Wildcats ought to win—Villanova.

Penn State (3-3-1) takes on Rutgers at State College. The Scarlet has beaten Temple and lost to Lehigh, so State's performance against Rutgers could be the tip-off on the relative strength of Lehigh and the other major powers—Penn State.

The rising Fordham Rams clash with Temple (4-2-1) at Philadelphia. Bouncing back from the upset by Bucknell—Temple.

Bucknell (5-3-0), meanwhile, invades Delaware to play the state university. Without comment — Bucknell.

Duquesne at Chattanooga

In a Friday night attraction, Duquesne (2-5-1) plays at Chattanooga, Tenn., U. The Tennesseans haven't done anything spectacular so far, so here's a prejudiced selection—Duquesne.

Friday Night—

Saturday—

Bloomsburg (6-1-0) at Indiana State (4-3-1)—the Huskies.

Carnegie Tech (6-1-0) vs. Westminster (2-5-1) at New Wilmington —the Tartans close a good season.

West Virginia Wesleyan at Waynesburg (2-2-2)—the Yellowjackets pull above .500.

Sunday—

St. Vincent (3-2-2) at Niagara, N. Y.—Niagara Falls.

August Yahn, former Youngstown college lineman, is continuing his football career into this season by playing with the Camp Lejeune Marines.

May Avert Strike On T.V. Networks

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Prospects for averting a coast-to-coast teelvision talent strike brightened early today in negotiations between five AFL unions and the TV networks.

George Heller, executive secretary of the AFL television authority at which the unions are organized, said after the session was adjourned at 2 a.m. that "the networks have made better wage offers which have led us to make counter-suggestions."

The negotiations with Columbia, National Broadcasting, American Broadcasting and Dumont networks and station WOR-TV will be resumed this afternoon.

Russian Roulette Claims Another Death Victim

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 16—(INS)—A 20-year-old Josephine, Pa., youth pushed his luck too far last night in a game of Russian roulette and died with a bullet wound in his temple.

Fred Chapla ,an orderly at Torrance state hospital, Blairsville stopped at the home of Austin Osman in Josephine last night to borrow a .32-caliber revolver to go hunting today.

He inserted one shell in the cartridge chamber of the borrowed revolver, spun it around and put it to his head.

The first time Chapla pulled the trigger, there was a click. The second time, an other click. On the third attempt, however, the gun fired.

Brest Completes Recruit Training

Graham Klyce Brest, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brest of 446 Loop street, Ellwood, has completed recruit training at San Diego, Calif., and will be assigned to a fleet unit, or enrollment as a student at one of the Navy's specialized service schools.

Americans and Canadians spent nearly $900 million for newspapers in 1947.

JOHNNY ON THE TOP SPOT - By Maver

Stengel will neither confirm nor deny possibility of a winter deal for Joe Page. The relief pitching ace had a poor season in 1949. Casey said it was due to a bad hip and explained: "Page's arm is not dead, and besides he's an 'every-other-year' pitcher."

Did you know that the White Sox have as good as lost Bill Wilson, the guy who was going to come galloping up out of the Southern Association and save them in centerfield next spring? He has passed his "physical" and is awaiting a call to induction.

Never in our history has there been such demand as we have experienced for the Mid-Century ROYAL MASTER and the new U. S. NYLON LIFE-TUBE!

People have asked us whether we'll be able to make enough of them to go around.

The answer is—we have never been able to make enough of them. They have been "selling out" as fast as we could make them.

Of one thing you may be sure—we will make all of them we can in keeping with all official limits on rubber supply.

He will see you safely and comfortably through the months and years ahead and we, of course, will do our utmost to help him.

TIRE QUALITIES AND FEATURES NEVER KNOWN OR POSSIBLE BEFORE

★ Never Before, U. S. ROYALTEX TREAD AND TRACTION to sweep, bite and hold in slippery weather, where tires never held before!

★ Never Before, U. S. NYLON LIFE-TUBES for blowout protection and Life Protection far beyond all previous standards.

★ Never Before, MID-CENTURY PROTECTIVE CURBGUARD to end all grinding curb scuff and abrasion—to safeguard the sidewalls of your tires.

Kiwanis Hears About Polio

National Foundation Executive Is Speaker

New Castle Kiwanis Club members were adressed by John J. Widerow, of Oil City, western Pennsylvania representative of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, at the weekly noon luncheon meeting of the club, Wednesday in The Castleton.

Mr. Widerow spoke about the gains which are being made in combatting this mysterious disease, for which there is no positive cure.

He talked about the operations of the National Foundation, stating that during the past year, it returned to chapters which were without funds to carry on its local work, the sum of seven millions of dollars. The year before, eleven millions were returned.

Fifty per cent of the money raised in the March of Dimes is sent to the National office, and if any chapter finds it funds depleted, the National Foundation gives it what it needs.

Administration Cost Small

The cost of administration, he stated, is only 1.9 per cent of the receipts, which is an exceptionally low figure.

Locally, he stated $14,000 was raised last year, which is about 14 cents per capita. The national figure is 26 cents per capita.

His talk was a prelude to the annual March of Dimes effort, which the club conducts locally for the Lawrence County Chapter, and which will take place in January next year.

Chairman William R. Hanna, of the Lawrence County Chapter, stated that the local chapter had a total of 13 cases this summer, of which number, seven are still undergoing treatment here. It has been impossible to get some of these victims into the Watson Home, at Pittsburgh, which is now filled to capacity. There are 80 patients in the Municipal hospital at Pittsburgh, who are awaiting their chance to get into the Watson Home.

Zippers Drafted For Military Use

AKRON, O.—(INS)—The zipper which serves so well in overshoes briefcases, tobacco pouches and pocketbooks, is now going off to war.

Latest model military airplanes are making use of the zipper to cut down hours on the ground formerly needed for replacement or repair of aileron and tail surfaces.

The B. F. Goodrich company of Akron manufacturer of the zipper, says that it forms an air-tight, separable joint on the fabric flap used as a seal between movable surfaces on the plane's tail surfaces.

Previously it was necessary to remove an entire row of screws and then replace them to make a repair.

Panama, according to the Book of Knowledge year book, is an Indian word meaning plenty of fish.

Failure Complex Tied To Courses

BOULDER, Colo.—(INS)—Now the theory has been presented that high school and college students moan and groan about taking English courses all because of a failure complex.

Ivan Schweninger, recent Colorado university graduate who has had practical teaching experience maintains that every time English teachers circle student errors with a red pencil they are building up this feeling of failure.

Schweninger put his theory to test by taking a group of high school students who had failed English courses time after time and trying to make them forget their past failure. He wrote short stories for them, asked the students to write criticisms of each story, and occasionally asked them to write an ending to the story. In this way he pinned their interest and aided self-expression.

Punctuation and grammar were slipped into their study. Most of all there were no red pencil marks around errors.

Tifereth Men's Club Plans Party

Regular monthly meeting of the Tifereth Men's club will be held at the synagogue on Sunday evening, December 3, at 8:30 p.m.

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away . . . .

As we get older, stress and strain, overexertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief — help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Egg Production Reaches New High

HARRISBURG, Nov. 16.—(INS)—Egg production rolled to a new high during October when farm hens and pullets were at record numbers, it was reported today by the Department of Agriculture.

Milk production for the month fell nine million pounds compared with September, according to the department.

The 20 million eggs produced during the month boosted the October yield to 258 million, the department reported. There were 20,310,000 layers registered during the month.

Prices rose about 1.9 cents a dozen during the month but were "considerably below" the level for the comparable month in 1949.

Production in the January-October period amounted to two billion 821 million eggs, according to the department. The yield during the 1949 comparable period was 265 million eggs below the 1950 level.

Milk production on Pennsylvania farms during October amounted to 466 million pounds but was six million pounds below the October, 1949, level. An estimated 959,000 cows were pastured during the month.
